IN THE BEE TO-DAY

WEATHER.

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Toledo, O., Oct. 19, 1892.

The storm has advanced to the eastward and is central this morning over the St. Lawrence valley. During its passage across the country it caused high winds over the lakes and rains over the entire country east of the Mississippi river, and as far south as Tennessee. Generally cloudy and rainy weather prevails over the northeastern portion of the country this morning, and in all other sections it is fair, and will probably continue so for the next 36 to 48 hours.

The area of high barometric pressure covers the entire western half of the country, and as it advances eastward it will dominate the weather over the eastern states.

The temperature has fallen decidedly over the entire country except the northeastern portion, where it has risen. It will fall over the northeast to-day, and will continue cool over the greater portion of the country during the next 48 hours.

Local forecast for Toledo and vicinity: On Wednesday, fair, cooler. On Thursday, fair, continued cool. From present indications the weather on Friday will be fair and warm.

A. HANNER, Observer.

Something you can't do is to get Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines at what pretend to be "cut prices." They don't come to you in that way.

To prevent fraud and imposition, the genuine guaranteed medicines are sold only through druggists duly authorized as agents, and always at these long-established prices:—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (for the Liver, Blood, and Lungs), $1.00 per bottle; Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription (for woman's weaknesses and ailments), $1.00 per bottle; and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets (for the Liver), 25 cents per vial.

The genuine medicines can be had only at these prices, but nothing else, no matter what the price, can be as cheap, for Dr. Pierce's medicines are guaranteed. In every case where they fail to benefit or cure, you have your money back. You pay only for value received. Beware of dilutions, imitations, and substitutes, offered at lower prices.

WAGON LOADS!

You see our wagons every day in every part of the city delivering great loads of Furniture, Carpets, Stoves and Household goods. # BOYS AND GIRLS,

In the Future To Be Great Men and Women,

Have Celebrated Properly in Chicago.

The Stars and Stripes, the Flag of the Free.

The Great City Full to Overflowing With People.

Men of All Nations Gathered to Dedicate the World's Fair Buildings—The Four Hundred Right in the Swim.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Never in the history of Chicago has a more distinguished company gathered within her portals than that which to-day awaits the inauguration of the exercises attendant upon the dedication of the structures designed for the purposes of the World's Columbian Exposition.

Senators, representatives, governors, generals, men gifted in statecroft, litterateurs of renown, men who adorn the judicial bench, men from the supreme court downwards filled the rotunda and corners of the hotels, and are to be encountered at every turn of the streets.

Every train on every one of the great iron highways that empty into the city is loaded down with passengers, and many of them are being run in two and three sections.

The task of decorating the city is still proceeding and designs gorgeous and unique are blossoming out upon the front of building after building like mushrooms.

Even with double forces behind the desk the hotels are realizing what it is to have a crowd dumped down upon them in short order. The Auditorium is entertaining Gov. Flower of New York, Chauncey M. Depew, Governors Bulkeley of Connecticut, Russell of Massachusetts, McKinley of Ohio, Peck of Wisconsin, together with the members of the National League of Press Clubs, President Palmer of the Exposition, and several private parties of New York, Detroit, Cleveland and other places.

At the Victoria are Governors Pattison of Pennsylvania, Winans of Michigan, ex-Governor Thatcher of California, the commissioners from Indiana, California and Wisconsin, the great and only Henry Villard, Gov. Markham of California, Messrs. Rockefeller and McDonald of the Standard Oil concern.

Govs. Merriam of Minnesota and Abbett of New Jersey, who brought with him a party of 35, together with Senator Stockbridge of Michigan, Congressman R. R. Hitt and Don M. Dickinson, are sheltered beneath the hospitable roof of the Richelieu.

The Leland numbers among its guests Gen. Schofield, Gen. Merritt and Gen. Brooks of the United States army, and Judge Massey of Delaware, with a party of 16.

Ex-President Hayes is anything but lonely at the Grand Pacific, for as company there with him Govs. Francis of Missouri, Boyd of Nebraska, Foster of Louisiana, Chase of Indiana, Routs of Colorado, Fifer of Illinois, Burke of North Dakota, together with Senator M. M. Cullom and Congressman John M. Candler of Massachusetts, the latter having been chairman of the congressional committee that investigated the world's fair some months ago.

The Palmer is full to overflowing, and so is the Leland and Sherman. The foreign ministers and attaches of diplomatic corps, together with the judges of the supreme court are being well taken care of at the magnificent new Lexington hotel. Last, but not least, Vice-President Morton, and who, in the deplorable absence of President Harrison, will represent the nation, is the guest of Ferdinand W. Peck, vice-president of the Exposition. The list of the distinguished arrivals will be added to this afternoon and to-night.

Fittingly enough, it was the children of the public schools that to-day, with patriotic exercises, inaugurated the celebration of the week. The exercises were informal as well as simple, for the powers that be of the Exposition, while squandering the money of the stockholders and of the nation as though it was as free as water and making an unparalleled record in what was once described by Disraeli as "plundering and blundering" could not be induced to appropriate a few thousand dollars in order that the school children might be enabled to hold a celebration in harmony with the other events of the week.

Nevertheless the teachers and their pupils in every school throughout the county did all in their power to make a patriotic showing, and well they succeeded, for the celebration of the little ones, in earnestness and touching simplicity, will not be surpassed by anything that is to come during the remainder of the week.

At 9 o'clock this morning the children assembled in their respective schools. Every boy and girl wore his or her Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes, and each displayed a miniature American flag, the boys in the button-holes of their coats, and the girls having them pinned upon their right shoulders.

The exercises were inaugurated with the reading of the proclamation of President Harrison declaring next Friday a national holiday, an announcement which was invariably followed with three cheers.

The children then marched to the yards attached to the schools and formed in double line, remaining bare-headed as the stars and stripes were hoisted on the school flag-staffs.

Then at a signal from the teachers the children, in ordered ranks, faced the flag and gave the military salute, lifting the right hand palm downward to a line with the forehead and close to it. At this point each child in slow and mellow tones repeated the following: "I pledge allegiance to my flag and the republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

At the words "to my flag" the children extended their right hands gracefully, palms upward, and remained in this position until the end of the affirmation.

Returning to the interior of the schools the children's voices blended in the patriotic hymn, "My Country, 'tis of Thee," and in a song specially prepared for the occasion, and entitled "Columbus Day."

This was followed by a program arranged by the teachers, consisting of historical essays, declamations, readings and patriotic songs. In each school there was an address on the meaning of the four centuries, and Edna Dean Procter's ode entitled Columbia's Banner, was recited, the exercises being brought to a conclusion by all uniting in the strains of "The Flag of the Free." Announcement was made amidst much cheering that the schools would be closed for the remainder of the week, and the children were then dismissed.

Society—or what is known in Chicago as the "polite world"—will have a celebration of its own to-night, and through which Chicago's aristocracy will be afforded an opportunity of exhaling its superfluous patriotism. Organized labor and the hoi-polloi alike will not be in it at to-night's world's fair reception and ball, precisely as they will be kept out of the grounds of the fair on dedication day, and afforded no opportunity of witnessing the exercises.

No event more exclusive, none intended by its promoters to be more aristocratic could mark even the queen's drawing room reception in London. Less than 1,000 out of the 1,500,000 of Chicago residents have been invited, each name having been sat in solemn judgment upon by the creme de la creme of the local four hundred before the invitation was issued, and each acceptance had to be accompanied with a check for $25.

The Auditorium, which is to be the scene of this feature of the world's fair exercises, and which for its aping of the customs of fossilized aristocracy might well have been dispensed with, has been magnificently decorated for the event. Crimson and yellow, the colors of Columbus, are mainly employed in the interior.

Around the boxes and galleries festoons of wild smilax will be caught up with silk rosettes of crimson and yellow. Back of the box intended for the president's occupancy the arms of the United States uphold the American flag, while back of the box to be occupied by the exposition officials the arms of Spain uphold the colors of the European nations. The stage is set in a hall-room scene, with gonfalons of red and yellow without number, while the boxes and foyers are elaborately decorated with plants and flowers.

Supper will be served at 1 o'clock in the morning. Nothing but vines, flowers and plants will be used in the decoration of the supper rooms.

The New Marine band will render a promenade program of 22 selections, and at midnight dancing will be inaugurated with a program of 18 numbers.

Among the distinguished guests who will be present are the following: Vice-President Levi P. Morton, Secretary of State John Foster, Secretary of the Treasury Charles Foster, Assistant Secretary A. B. Nettleton, Assistant Secretary Oliver N. Spaulding, Secretary of War Stephen B. Elkins, Major General John M. Schofield, Secretary of the Interior John W. Noble, Superintendent of the Census R. P. Porter, Attorney General William H. H. Miller, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Edwin Willitts, Chief Justice Fuller, Justice Field, Justice Harlan, Justice Gray, Justice Blatchford, Justice Lamar and Justice Brown; the governors of all the states; Mr. Lavley, attorney-general of Nova Scotia; Arnold Schneider, consular agent of Belgium; James H. Pierce, director of the Toronto exhibition; N. Awrey, M. P. P.; Henry Wade, secretary world's Columbian exposition for Ontario; Mrs. and Miss Weiner, wife and niece of the commissioner from Good Hope; W. R. Estes, consul, Jamaica; Charles J. Ward, commissioner, Jamaica; Senor Don Julio Rengifo, secretary of the Colombian legation; Senor Don Matias Romero and wife, Mexican minister; Senor Don Miguel Savarrabias, secretary of Mexican legation; Tsunejiro Mikavka, Japan; Charles McKenzie, Sarnia, Ontario; Don Manuel Multedo, secretary of the Spanish legation; Dr. James Jack, Montreal; Charles Mali, consul from Belgium; Arthur Veitch, Chelsea, South Wales; Hon. L. H. Arendt, acting German vice-consul; Lieutenant-Colonel Tetol, Ottawa; W. G. McWilliams, solicitor for Canada's fair; Hon. G. C. de Broukart, Belgium's consul at Denver; and General Zeltafihi, consul-general of Turkey.

The executive committee of the National Editorial association is in session at a local hotel to-day for the purpose of fixing a place and date for the next convention and to agree upon the program. The world's fair committee of the same association is also holding a meeting for the purpose of considering the invitation extended to the association to participate in the world's press congress to be held in Chicago next May. Questions concerning this congress, and which will be attended by the leading newspaper men of the world, are to be considered and acted upon.

The executive committee of the International League of Press Clubs arrived here to-day by special train for the purpose of participating in the dedicatory exercises. The party includes Col. John A. Cockerill, of New York; William Berri, of Brooklyn; Charles W. Price, of New York; John P. Dunsman, of Reading; T. J. Keenan, jr., of Pittsburg; William R. Alexander, of Boston, and P. C. Boyle, of Oil City.

Charles Green, secretary of the Missouri state world's fair commission, has resigned his position, and has been succeeded by Mr. William Dawson, a member of the board. Mr. Green's office has been in Kansas City, but Mr. Dawson's headquarters will be in St. Louis in an office furnished for the use of the commission by the St. Louis Autumnal Festivities association. The Missouri exhibit is in a very forward condition, and it is expected to rank among the most costly of the state displays.

THE MUSICAL PROGRAM.

Twelve Thousand Voices to Sing in Chorus

In Court House Park, Following the Parade, on Friday, Columbian Day.

The exercises at Court House park on Columbian day will commence directly after the dismissal of the parade. It will be the grandest chorus that was ever organized in this vicinity. At least 12,000 voices will unite in unison. For weeks the children of the schools have been rehearsing at their various places of learning, and the effect, when they are massed together, will be something magnificent.

After a selection by the military band the assemblage will be called to order by Mayor Emmick, president of the day.

Four hundred voices from the departments of the High school and graduates of the class of '92 will sing Keller's American Hymn, under the direction of Prof. W. A. Ogden.

The united chorus of all the school children will then sing the Red, White and Blue.

Rev. W. W. Williams will offer prayer.

St. Patrick's school chorus will sing the Star Spangled Banner, under the direction of Prof. J. B. Poulin.

The orator of the day, Hon. R. H. Cochran, will deliver an address, after which all the children and those assembled will join in singing America, conducted by Prof. Ogden. It is probable that there will be 40,000 voices.

Rev. Edward Hannin will pronounce the benediction and bring the exercises to a close.

BOGUS PRINCE OF TECK

A Young American Who Is Insane

Has Been Making Trouble in England.

Sentence Deferred to Allow the Court to Consider the Sanity of the Prisoner.

London, Oct. 19.—The pretended prince of Teck, who has been personating Queen Victoria's son-in-law in a way that indicated unsoundness of mind, proves to be an American whose real name is Heidelburg, and a son of worthy parents in the United States.

His swindling has been of such a clumsy character and his assumption of princely title so obviously bogus and extravagant that the authorities are inclined to accept the plea of his friends that he is insane.

When arraigned on an indictment at the Old Bailey to-day, the bogus prince pleaded guilty.

He was represented by counsel, engaged by his relatives, who suggested that the prisoner was a lunatic and should be treated as such. It was shown by prosecution that the pretended prince had been previously convicted of fraudulent practices at Liverpool. Sentence was deferred in order to enable further inquiry to be made as to his antecedents and mental condition.

City Solicitor Read Has Recommended

That the Case Go to the Grand Jury

At Once, and a Prosecution to Follow.

The Charges Are Irregularities in Office.

Municipal Affairs Are Becoming Decidedly Interesting to the People of the City Who Pay the Taxes.

Sensations in municipal affairs are coming thick and fast, and the public is beginning to take new and strange developments as a matter of course.

The councilmen cases will not have been disposed of until Street Commissioner Bower's case comes on. Then comes the grand jury and its report, which, judging from signs of the times, will furnish some toothsome morsels for the public to nibble at.

The latest is an unexpected turn affairs in the Bower case.

Yesterday afternoon City Solicitor Read mailed a communication to County Prosecutor Barber, recommending that Street Commissioner Bower be indicted and prosecuted for irregularities in office as developed by a thorough investigation by the board of revision and so reported to the council.

In conversation with a Bee Mr. Read said: "I took this step not because I deemed it necessary to procure a prosecution, but because I wished to signify to the county prosecutor that the board of revision was ready to go ahead with the prosecution."

CROOKED LAWYER.

He Has Been Robbing His Clients Right and Left.

Boston, Oct. 19.—F. P. Magee, commissioner of insolvency in 1887 and a lawyer with an office in the Adams building, has been missing for about six weeks, and it is said he owes some of his friends and clients large sums of money.

It is alleged that he has borrowed large sums, which in some cases he has failed to repay. In other cases he is said to have given worthless checks in payment.

One rumor says that he collected for a client, Mrs. Isabella Ray, $2,000 for injuries received at the time of the Buzzey bridge disaster. This money he is said to have paid to her in the first place and soon afterward borrowed it and failed to return it.

THOSE PIPE LINE TAXES

Wood County Has a Word or Two to Say.

Answer Filed Denying the Allegations of the Petition for An Injunction.

A short time ago Attorney Bassett went to Bowling Green and, representing the city, enjoined the treasurer of Wood county from collecting taxes on the city gas pipe line and equipment in that county, on the ground that the property was exempt from taxation by the terms of an act of the legislature passed two years ago, which requires that the pipe line must be used to heat and light the city.

The defendant has filed an answer in which it is denied that the pipe line is used exclusively for heating and lighting the city, but that the same is used to convey natural gas for private, domestic and commercial consumption. The answer denies that the pipe line is exempt from taxation or that the steps taken to collect the taxes are unlawful.

Mr. John Hefner, East Liverpool, Ohio, Describes How Neglected Catarrh

Affected His Head and Stomach and How He Was Cured by Dr. Byers and His Associates.

"I had been troubled two years with my head and stomach," says Mr. John Hefner, who is a teamster in the employ of Mr. William Sells, contractor, East Liverpool, O. "It was no doubt brought on by exposure to all kinds of weather, and the result of neglected colds. My nostrils were always clogged by mucous, which also dropped down into my throat, causing me to hawk to dislodge, and I was often attacked by the most excruciating headaches, which would lay me off from my work several days at a time.

"My stomach also became affected to such an extent that it was with difficulty I ate enough to keep up sufficient strength to enable me to get through with my work. I would get such fearful attacks of heartburn that I would be worth nothing for hours afterward.

"I had doctored and doctored without benefit, until one month ago I decided to go to Pittsburg and consult Dr. Byers and his associates. They examined me carefully, and told me my head and stomach trouble came from catarrh, and that they could cure me if I would follow their instructions faithfully. They gave me a month's supply of medicine to take home; and I must say that I have not been troubled with my head and stomach since the second day's treatment. It is simply miraculous how quick the medicine took effect. I cheerfully recommend them to all my friends and the public who may be suffering with any chronic trouble, as I know they understand their business perfectly."

Interesting Sporting News Gathered From All Over the World for Bee Readers.

Cleveland, Oct. 19.—The day was perfect for ball playing, and 7,000 people saw the game. The umpires were Messrs. McQuaid and Gaffney. It was the first time McQuaid had been seen here this season, and he was greeted with applause as he walked behind the plate. The following is a detailed account of the game:

First inning—Long made a hot line hit to center. McCarthy hit the ball as Long started to steal second. McKean ran to cover the base and the ball passed safely to left field, Long going to third. On Duffy's fly to McAleer, Long scored. While Kelly was at bat, McCarthy started to steal second, Zimmer dropped the ball, and Kelly walked all over it. He was declared out for interference. McCarthy went back to first and then Nash was thrown out on a hit to Clarkson. Childs flied out to Duffy, Burkett to McCarthy, and Davis was retired by a hit to Tucker.

Second inning—McKean threw Lowe out at first. Tucker made a base hit to right field, but was forced out at second on Quinn's hit to McKean. Staley struck out. McKean was retired on a ground hit to Tucker. Virtue went out at first on Quinn's assist, and McAleer on Staley's assist.

Third inning—Clarkson made a grand stop of Long's hit and threw to first, but Virtue muffed the ball. McCarthy advanced Long on a hit to Virtue. Duffy rapped the ball to left field and Burkett overran it, giving the batter three bases. Long scored in the meantime. Kelly hit to McKean, who threw Duffy out at the plate. Kelly stole second and Nash flied to Burkett.—O'Connor died on a liner to Staley. Zimmer hit past third base for a single and Clarkson followed with a two-base hit to left center.

Zimmer Could Have Scored

but stayed on third. Childs got a base on balls, filling the bases, and Zimmer ran home after Lowe caught Burkett's fly. Tebeau went out, Staley to Tucker.

Fourth inning—Lowe began with a hit, Tucker flied out to McAleer, who made a brilliant catch, Quinn flied to O'Connor and Staley struck out.—McKean hit safely for Cleveland, went to second on Virtue's bunt and scored on McAleer's clean single to left. Lowe fumbled the ball and McAleer went on to second. O'Connor put him on third with a hit to Long and Zimmer was retired, Nash to Tucker.

Fifth inning—Long flied to Childs. McCarthy rapped a hot grounder that Tebeau fumbled. Duffy followed with a two-base hit against the left field fence, sending McCarthy home. Kelly and Nash struck out in succession.—Clarkson flied out to Zimmer. Childs was thrown out by Long and Burkett bunted safely, but was caught off first by a quick throw by Sixth inning—Lowe struck out and Tucker and Quinn were retired on ground hits to Virtue.—Tebeau flied out to Quinn, McKean hit safely to right and Virtue followed with a drive too hot for Tucker. McAleer batted what seemed to be a safe hit, but McCarthy caught it and threw Virtue out at first.

Seventh inning—Staley struck out, Long flied out to O'Connor, and McCarthy to Tebeau.—O'Connor went out, Nash to Tucker. Zimmer made a slashing two-base hit down the left field foul line, and if he had run fast and kept on he might possibly have scored as the ball was blocked. He halted at second in spite of the fact that he was told to go on by Capt. Tebeau and lost a chance for a run. Clarkson went out, Staley to Tucker, advancing Zimmer to third. Childs was thrown out by Nash.

That Scored Duffy.

Lowe fouled out to Tebeau. Tucker hit safely to right, and O'Connor threw Nash out at the plate.—Burkett was retired on a hit to Tucker. Tebeau flied out to Duffy. McKean went out, Quinn to Tucker.

Ninth inning—Quinn was given a base on balls, but was forced out at second on Staley's hit to Virtue. Long flied out to McKean: McCarthy hit for a base, but was forced out at second on Duffy's hit to McKean.—Virtue made the prettiest hit of the game, but Duffy caught the ball. McAleer popped up a fly to short center field. Duffy muffed the ball, and McAleer went on to second and was called out by Gaffney. O'Connor placed a safe hit over second base, and Zimmer brought the crowd to its feet with a terrific drive against the left field fence for three bases that sent O'Connor home. Clarkson followed with a hit too hot for Staley to handle, but Long got the ball and threw Clarkson out at first.

Stivetts will pitch for Boston to-day, and possibly Young for Cleveland. It will be the last opportunity to see the Cleveland boys in 1892. Bring out your horseshoes, rabbits' feet and other paraphernalia. This game must be Cleveland's. Score:

A THOUSAND MILES.

New York and Chicago Telephone Line.

The Mayors of Two Great Cities Have a Friendly Chat by Wire.

New York, Oct. 19.—The cities of New York and Chicago were united yesterday. Figuratively speaking, it was a civil marriage, the mayors of the two great cities, a thousand miles apart, performing the ceremony. It was a distinguished gathering in the office of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. in this city, who acted as witnesses to the ceremony. Gathered within an arched glass chamber made brilliant with colored lights, and whose sides were ornamented with potted plants and flowers, were many men famed in electrical science and skilled with pen.

In the center of the room, placed at the base of the column, profusely decorated with golden ribbons and yellow chrysanthemums, was a handsome cabinet receiver, constructed especially for the occasion. Radiating from this cabinet were twenty or thirty receivers, that were distributed among the guests in order that they might hear for themselves what science had accomplished. The test was an absolute success, notwithstanding weather conditions in Chicago and along the line were decidedly against the experiment.

In the New York office were gathered Mayor Grant, Commissioner Walter Storm and Electrical Expert Schuyler S. Wheeler, of the board of electrical control; Prof. Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone; E. L. Ridgway, of the Consolidated Subway company; John Hudson, president of the American Bell Telephone company; W. J. Sefton, Ralph Pope, George M. Phillips and T. C. Martin, of the Society of Electrical Engineers; several ladies, officers of the telephone company, and a score of newspaper men. Altogether about 100 persons were assembled.

It was learned by telephone that a precisely similar gathering was in the Chicago office.

President Hudson explained to the assemblage in the New York office that this new connection between New York and Chicago was the longest telephone line in the world. The long distance telephone between Paris and Marseilles was, he said, only 500 miles in length, and that between London and Paris less than 250 miles, whereas the New York-Chicago line was nearly 1,000 miles.

With these preliminary remarks the test began. The soft strains of a cornet floated through the room, carrying the familiar strains of the "Star Spangled Banner." Hardly had the last note died away when it was announced that the music would be repeated from Chicago. The auxiliary receivers were placed to numerous ears, and clear and distinct came the familiar air. A hush was asked for and the auxiliary receivers disconnected. Then the wonderful carrying power was fully demonstrated. A small, thin, thread-like note came from the cabinet receiver, but it was the same familiar tune, and was distinctly heard by all in the room.

"America" was sent and received in the same way, and then Mayor Grant came to the cabinet. His honor sat down, clapped the receiver to his ear, his mouth close to the transmitter, and said in a low, distinct voice: "Hello, Chicago; is that you, Mayor Washburne—(pause).

The Chicago mayor was evidently not familiar with long distance telephones, as he did not get sufficiently near to the instrument to make his voice carry.

"The city of Chicago greets the city of New York," said Mayor Washburne in Chicago.

"The city of New York returns the compliment, and wishes you all success in the great celebration you are to have there this week," was Mayor Grant's reply.

"The city of Chicago extends its greeting and congratulates the nation," said Mayor Washburne, impressively, "on an American invention which shall supplement the telegraph and enable the people of this continent to communicate orally where they now resort to the post and telegraph."

Mayor Grant responded no less impressively: "I congratulate you and the people of the United States upon the opening of this great wire." Mayor Grant, in conclusion, made a graceful personal expression of regret at his inability, owing to press of official business, at not being able to be present in person as well as by voice in Chicago during the world's fair dedication week.

A Weighty Argument

For the use of the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt is that it goes to the root of the disease, while other remedies strike only at the disease.

Notice the distinction.

For instance: Pills and purgatives which act quickly upon the bowels irritate and destroy the mucous coats of the stomach and bowels. A continued use of such remedies produces chronic inflammation of the stomach and bowels. The use of the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt is, therefore, highly recommended because its action is due solely to its constitutional solvent and stimulating properties, without irritating the stomach. Be sure, however, to obtain the genuine imported article.

Reported That He Is Short in His Accounts Some Ten Thousand.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Charles Wentworth Orde is the name of a dapper young man about whom genteel society on the north side is talking in an agitated way these days.

His name was coupled in matrimonial probabilities with a beautiful belle. Mr. Orde has gone and left behind him the belle, society, "set" and all, and the American Exchange National bank, of this city, deplores his absence to the tune of thousands of dollars. Mr. Orde was in charge of the country accounts. About ten days ago the bank clerk's accounts were overhauled and a shortage of about $15,000 discovered. Mr. Orde, ascertaining that he was suspected, packed up his clothes and left, it is said, for Canada.

Bills Fild in the Chicago Courts.

Messrs. Montgomery, Turner and Farr Must Give An Account of Their Doings.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Bills for a receiver were filed in the circuit court yesterday against the Western Manufacturers' Mutual Insurance company by the Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mills company, the Columbia Mill company, the Saddle-Fletcher-Holmes company, Fraser & Shepard, Erbarber & Co., and Stamtz & Schober, all of Minneapolis, and the La Grange mills, of Red Wing, Minn.

The defendant corporation was organized to carry on a general fire insurance business on the mutual plan under the laws of Illinois. The bill alleges that in January, 1891, the company practically stopped doing business and reinsured all its policy holders in three New York companies, having at the time net assets between $50,000 and $100,000. The officers were: President, Palmer A. Montgomery; vice president, Wm. H. Turner; secretary, George D. Farr.

It is charged that these officers have not caused a meeting to be held within the last three years and have controlled the company for their own personal uses, Montgomery and Farr becoming the agents of the concerns in which they reinsured the risks of their company.

Nearly Three Thousand Miles in Five Days, Fourteen Hours and Twenty Minutes.

New York, Oct. 19.—The steamship City of Paris of the Inman line has again broken the westward record from Queenstown which was made by her when she made the run in July in 5 days 15 minutes and 58 minutes.

She also beats the record for single day's run by covering 530 against the record of 528 miles made by the Teutonic.

The General Committee on Arrangements

For the Columbus Day Celebration Meet and Pass Upon Preliminaries—Judge Cochran to Orate.

Great progress was made last night at the meeting of the general committee on the Columbian celebration in forwarding preparations and putting affairs in proper shape for the monster demonstration of Friday.

At an early hour Mr. John J. Jacobi met with representatives of the different bands and drum corps of the city, to consider the number of musicians each could furnish and the price they asked. In this work he was afterwards assisted by Mr. P. J. Mettler. The list consisted of the City Leon's Marine, Auburndale, Peerless, Eagle, Polish cornet and Sobieski bands, and the Toledo, Sons of Veterans, Y. M. C. A., First ward and Crystal drum corps.

Mayor Emmick took the chair and stated that the treasurer of the finance committee had $890 in hand; that there was $140 in his safe; that he and Mr. Wallace had collected $132 during the afternoon; he agreed to get $200 to-day; that Alderman Hassenzahl had $42; that Mr. Holbrook had $38 the other day, and others were to be heard from. He understood the city and county officers had not yet subscribed. President Hanner had told him the fire commissioners would raise $50 more. Thus $1,482 was provided. He was sure the money could be got regardless of the city council.

The need of badges and programs being mentioned, the mayor, on motion, appointed Messrs. Beatty, Hopkins and Campbell a committee on printing.

By a series of resolutions, orders on the treasurer were authorized for $500 for music, $550 for fireworks; $100 for horses for the battery and salute; $150 for two floats—Columbus and America, and $25 for the colored people's float. It was calculated that $100 would be needed for incidentals, such as printing, stationery and postage. Some of the marshals appointed had horses, but mounts would have to be hired for others. The whole cost thus estimated reached $1,520.

Major Hopkins explained that as there would probably be 15,000 in the parade, which would form at Twelfth and Madison streets, with the school children also formed, and as all the cross streets would be crowded, it was necessary to issue circulars so that the different divisions would know where and how to form, and that people could decorate along the line of march, which would probably be on Twelfth, Monroe, Summit, Walnut, Superior, Cherry, Huron, St. Clair and Madison streets to Tenth street, at the High school building.

A request from Broadway school for a fife and drum band in the morning was granted—members of the Crystal band to go there.

Mr. Gunckel reported everything getting into shape for the fire-works. A man would be here Friday morning to get the scows prepared and the big schooner decorated. The fire-works would arrive in the morning.

The mayor, alluding to the defeat of the appropriation resolution in the board of aldermen, Monday evening, said that if the country had depended on such patriotism, it would have been lost. The city of Cleveland pays all expenses for the celebration there, but the fellows here stuck at $200. If it had been for a junketing tour they would have voted it.

Capt. Roulet remarked that Cleveland has a whole council, while Toledo has only half a one now.

Alderman Hassenzahl, who voted against the appropriation, remarked that he had never voted for any junket. If the members of the council had all gone out and collected money for this celebration, there would have been no need of proposing an appropriation, which was illegal, as stated by the proposers.

Mr. Gunckel, couldn't see any money in the discussion, and as he had gotten no supper he begged to retire.

Father Hannin reported a kind reception of his committee by the county commissioners, and the park ground very appropriate. There was a brick wall to act as a sounding board, but no stage, and not money enough to build one. He tried personal influence, and his friend P. F. Whalen, of the Buckeye Paint works, would give heavy timbers; St. Patrick's parish would furnish joists, and Mr. Peters 1,500 feet of stock boards; all of which material would be brought and removed free of charge. He would see the work done and pay for it himself, and a platform 20 by 75 feet would be ready, substantial enough to hold 1,000 men like the mayor.

On motion of Capt. Roulet thanks were tendered to Father Hannin, and through him to those providing the material.

On suggestion that Father Hannin be provided with a horse for the parade, he emphatically stated that he would walk with the boys.

Mr. Joseph Huber reported $10 collected and promised more from men that had been missed in the canvass of the day.

Mr. Beatty reported that Gen. Gibson could not come to deliver the oration, and that the committee had secured Judge Cochran. The report was accepted, with thanks to Judge Cochran.

The further report was made that the Toledo Maennerchor could not practice now to sing, and the committee recommended that the public school children sing Hail Columbia, and that the mayor act as chairman. This was agreed to, also that the program be printed.

The question as to who should occupy the platform was discussed for some time, and it was finally decided that the limited room it will afford must be reserved to the participants in the program and representatives of the press. It was resolved that only one carriage be engaged—for the mayor, Judge Cochran, and Dr. Williams, who will offer the opening prayer. Father Hannin, who will pronounce the benediction, persists in walking. Someone suggested that Mr. Jacobi go in the carriage "to line up Dr. Williams," and no objection was made.

Father Hannin reported progress on the procuring of girls to represent the states. He and Mr. Compton would report the names to the grand marshal. It was proposed that they be dressed in white, with sashes of red, white and blue, each carrying the flag of a state. They would all be at the High school at 1 o'clock Friday.

Mr. Sussman reported that the Columbus float would be on hand on Adams street, at Memorial hall, promptly at 1 o'clock. He suggested a guard of honor of one company of soldiers, and Major Hopkins said he would see the colonel about it.

On the matter of stopping the street cars and vehicles on the line of march during the parade, the mayor said he would attend to that, by direct orders through the chief of police.

FRED KUMLER KICKS,

Gets Out An Injunction, Is Arrested

And Brought Into Police Court This Morning—All About the Tearing Down of Hotel Montreal.

Some ten days ago the health department condemned the property known as Hotel Montreal, near the Perry street bridge. It is a building that impresses strangers coming from the depot with the architectural beauties of the city. It is the last thing a person remembers on going away, and it is the first thing that greets the returned wanderer with the same sweet smile of recognition as played on its features, metaphorically speaking, as in palmier days.

The health department decided that it was unclean, in a poor sanitary condition, and a nuisance to the city's health. Notice was served upon F. A. Kumler, the agent for the New York party who owns the building, instructing him to tear it down. The ten days' notice did not cut any figure with Mr. Kumler. He got out an injunction restraining the board of health from demolishing the building.

This did not stop work with the board of health. Health Officer Fisher swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mr. Kumler as well as for E. L. Valois, the insurance and real estate man, who refused to tear down the two-story frame at 18 St. Clair street.

They were both arrested by Officer McPartland at 8 o'clock this morning. The cases came up in police court to-day. J. K. Hamilton and John Kumler appeared for Mr. Kumler. They held that the health department had no authority to order Mr. Kumler, who was only an agent, to destroy another person's property; that the action was illegal, and that the defendant should be discharged.

The court decided to continue the case for ten days to see what action the common pleas court would take in the matter.

Messrs. Kumler and Valois were released on their own recognizance.

C. F. BRAUN, Missionary.

How We Apples Swim.

We notice, in several of our neighboring exchanges, items indicating that the counties of Hancock, Lucas and Seneca are associated with Wood in testing the infamous pipe line law which is designed to beat those counties out of the taxes ordinarily and justly due from the city of Toledo. This is not true. Auditor Wilson sought to get the other counties to join him, but their auditors and commissioners were apparently afraid of hurting the city's feelings, and declined. So it is Wood county's auditor, treasurer and commissioners alone who are going to make the pipe line "show how they do it," and we do not like to see any outside parties, who lacked the nerve to claim their own, now trying to get in on a free ticket and claiming any credit on the "how we apples swim" order.—Bowling Green Sentinel.

Death of Edward Warren Perrin.

On the 18th inst. occurred the death of Edward Warren Perrin, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Walbridge. Mr. Perrin has been a resident of Toledo for 34 years. Later he was engaged in the grocery business with Peter Morss, after which he was secretary of the water works board for two years. Up to three years ago he was connected with the Finlay Brewing company. Since that time he has been in poor health, having suffered a stroke of paralysis. He was 72 years of age, an old an respected citizen. He leaves a wife and daughter, Mrs. John Walbridge, to mourn his loss, beside an army of friends. The funeral will occur from the residence to-morrow afternoon and will be private. Peculiarly sad is this death, it having occurred on the date of the marriage of his granddaughter. The family have the sympathy of their many friends.

The programs are not yet out, but rapid progress is being made and music lovers are anticipating a rare treat.

Electric Light Plant.

The Toledo Electric Light company expected to get its temporary plant on the site of the burned works into running order this morning, but the dynamos have not arrived. A roof has been thrown over the basement of the old building, and five of the old engines are to be used, four being thrown out. The piping has been replaced and tested, and all is ready for the machines. These temporary works were made necessary on account of the rolling mills being unable to furnish steady power. The company's new building at Water and Locust streets, is getting into shape, and will be the finest of the kind in the country.

A social will be given by the Fifth Presbyterian church on the evening of November 4.

A decidedly pleasurable reception was given at St. Paul's M. E. church last evening. There was a large attendance, although the evening was a stormy one. Music added much to the occasion and dainty refreshments were served during the evening. Rev. Hutsinpiller and the members of his church received the guests.

A BIG BOND

To Be Submitted to the City Depository Commission.

The depositry commission is called to meet at the mayor's office at 3 o'clock.

The object of the meeting is to approve the bond of the Second National bank as custodian of the city's funds. This bond is in the sum of $400,000. A municipal bond of $133,000 will also be given and approved.

FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

The Toledo Electric Light Company Secures.

The adjusters on the losses of the Toledo Electric Light company, caused by the recent burning out of the plant on St. Clair street, met to-day and gave the company $40,000.

The insurance on the plant was $55,000.

There has been a good deal of delay in the matter, and the adjustment gives satisfaction.

AN IRISH JAUNTING CAR

Will Head the Traveling Salesmen Friday.

The Toledo commercial travelers will be there in great style in the parade on Friday.

The genial B. F. Wade and his Irish jaunting car with tandem will head the commercial salesmen.

All traveling salesmen of the city or who should be in the city Friday are cordially invited to go to the hall at 1 p. m., Friday. Each will be given a cane and a small American flag.

The boys are right in line.

MALONE GETS IT.

The Contract for the New Transfer Building.

The bids for the proposed transfer barns on Erie street were opened at the office of Capt. P. H. Dowling to-day, and the contract was awarded to M. J. Malone for $20,000.

It will be the finest institution of the kind between Buffalo and Chicago, and the fact that Mr. Malone has got the contract assures an excellent building.

PRIORITY OF CLAIM

Attorney I. N. Huntsberger to-day filed a petition in error in the circuit court for John Jennings, et ux., against the Flint Glass Sand and Stone company, seeking to reverse the order of distribution made by the common pleas court. This order awarded the Ohio National bank all of the proceeds resulting from the sale of real estate owned by the Flint Glass Sand & Stone company, amounting to about $30,000. Jennings claims priority over that of the Ohio National bank, which was denied by the lower court.

UNION VICTORY.

No "Open" Tailor Shops in Toledo, But All Union or Otherwise.

Union tailors of this city determined at their last meeting that the "open" shops must go. These are shops in which both union men are permitted to work side by side with non-union men. There were only three such shops, and in one of them, that of Barfield & Atkin, on Madison street, matters were quickly arranged by the non-union men there agreeing to go into the union. This action was followed by the non union tailors working for Heyn Bros., Summit street, and later by those working for John Daiber. The employers in each case, on being asked, said they had no objection to all the men belonging to the union if they so chose, and thus easily were the "open shops" done away with.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Hadley celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Monday evening in a quiet manner, by inviting a few of their most intimate friends to tea at 7 o'clock. It was the first opening of their lovely home, which has lately been undergoing such a complete transformation and which in beauty of interior finish and decoration, can not be excelled. After tea, whist was played and each guest received as a favor a dainty coffee spoon, marked 1867-1892, A.-H., (Adams-Hadley), and while it was understood no presents would be received, a magnificent gift was left them. At a late hour the guests departed, all wishing that Mr. and Mrs. Hadley would be able to celebrate their golden wedding in as joyous and youthful a manner as did they the silver anniversary.

TALK ABOUT GLUE FACTORIES!

Well They Can't Be Compared for Odor, With Sour Dye.

The citizens residing on Hicks street, between Ewing and Wells, have been treated for the last few days to a rank smell that throws completely in the shade any odor that can be emitted from a glue factory, paper mill or anything else, but a dye house.

On Dorr street, between the streets named, is situated a branch establishment of the Parisian dye house. There is a sewer connection, but for some time the sour dye has been running out in the alley and the citizens in that vicinity declare that limburger cheese is a sweet and delicate perfume, in comparison.

Something is evidently wrong with the sewer and the inspector is respectfully requested to load up with disinfectants, catch a hard cold and try and ascertain the whenceness of the rank and rily fluid.

COLUMBIAN MEETING

Of the Isabella Circle—Interesting Paper on the Incas of Peru.

What part are the ladies to take in the Columbian celebration? is a question that has been frequently asked in the past two weeks.

Whether or not they take any active part in Friday's demonstrations, certain it is, that there is no class of people, men or women, in the city, better posted on the historic events incident to the discovery of this country, and the discoverer, than the members of the historical society, known as the Queen Isabella circle.

The second meeting of the season was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Romeyn Rogers, 920 East Broadway, the president, Mrs. Rosa L. Segur, in the chair.

Mrs. Rogers' pleasant parlors were handsomely and tastefully decorated with banners and flags of the national colors, and presented a pleasing appearance.

A very able paper was read by Mrs. E. R. Collins, on the Incas of Peru, after which the character and career of Columbus was discussed.

Among the ladies who entered into the discussions were Mesdames Nellie Bacon, R. Rogers, Geo. Bills, S. A. Richardson, A. E. Howe, S. Quigley, A. Sykes, M. E. Coffin, A. C. Cotter, Mrs. Dr. Waddick, M. Dutton, A. Browning, M. Spayd, Mrs. Dr. Scott, Mrs. L. M. Fralich, Mrs. T. Rooney, I. L. Van Wormer, E. M. Topliff and the Misses Mary and Catharine Crowe.

After the meeting adjourned Mrs. Rogers served dainty refreshments, and a social hour was enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon, November 15, with Mrs. J. A. Rooney, 835 Superior street.

Miss Katharine Crowe will read a paper upon The Loss of the Spanish Possessions in South America.

The Outing and Y. M. C. A. Teams Final Contest

Will Take Place Saturday—Last Evening's Tea at the Y. M. C. A.—The Association's Anniversary.

Saturday afternoon at the Outing club grounds will occur the last and deciding foot ball match between the Y. M. C. A. and the Outing club teams. The Outing boys won the first match and the Y. M. C. A's. the second, so this is to be the rubber.

The Outing club team will be reinforced by four members of the University of Michigan foot ball team. They are members of the club so they are entitled to use them. They will give the Y. M. C. A. boys a hard rub.

They Y. M. C. A. team was photographed this morning by Lewis.

About fifty committeemen and active members of the Y. M. C. A. met at Association hall last evening and enjoyed the annual committeemen's tea. Refreshments were served by Caterer McCarthy in first-class style. After the repast toasts were responded to as follows:

The Y. M. C. A.—Rev. J. A. P. McGaw.

The Committeemen—S. T. Klotz.

The spread—J. H. Hicks.

The older members—C. H. Buck, who is the oldest member of the association both in point of age and connection with it. He said he was one of the boys and didn't want the members to forget that fact.

Following the toasts Secretary Turner explained the object of the meeting, and solicited committeemen for future service. Quite a number responded, and will act when called upon.

It proved a most enjoyable affair. It is proposed to have these reunions every month on the first Tuesday.

The association will celebrate its annual anniversay Sunday, November 6. It is expected that the Musin Concert company, which is to appear in the Star Course the following evening, will furnish music for this occasion. The exercises will be held at the First Congregational church.

The vocal music class, under direction of Prof. Amos Whiting, begins to-night in Y. M. C. A. hall. All ladies and gentlemen who desire will be admitted free to first lesson.

Meetings Booked for Byron Ritchie and Others.

The following meetings to be addressed by those named have been arranged for Ottawa county, and other announcements will follow:

Port Clinton, Oct. 22—Hon. Barton Smith and F. A. Baldwin.

Genoa, Oct. 19—Byron F. Ritchie and A. Farquharson.

Elmore, Oct. 22—Byron F. Ritchie and Hon. L. C. Cole.

Marblehead—Byron F. Ritchie, date to be announced hereafter.

Register to-morrow.

Every democrat should register in his voting precinct to-morrow.

It is a patriotic and wholesome duty to decorate your homes externally on Columbus day.

Register to-morrow. Polling booths open at 8 a. m., and practically remain so until 9 p. m.

Fourth ward democrats are in line this trip, and will give a good account of themselves on election day.

Railroads will do their share towards massing a crowd at Chicago this week. Rates are down to pretty low figures.

Toledo's Cadets will hold up the city's good name in Chicago this week. That it will be well done goes without saying.

Col. Bunker has a big job on hand to properly handle 20,000 Toledoans in Friday's parade, but he will prove equal to the task.

The people's party, in Ohio at least, seems to have lost its grip. The prohibitionists are showing much greater evidences of being on earth.

Twenty-two people attended the great Ashley meeting at Weber's hall the other night. It was a grand rally, and shows Mr. Ashley's popularity in the Sixth.

Candidate Whitelaw Reid is out with his letter of acceptance. There is nothing new in it; the same old platitudes are threshed.

The nominees on the democratic county ticket grow in popularity each day. They are worthy in every respect, and there ought not to be the slightest question about their election.

Governor Ashley will probably reply to Mr. Ritchie's address at Memorial hall next Monday night. Byron laid down some thoughts for him to think about between now and then.

Honors are now easy—Swain, democrat, and Tanner, republican, resigned their seats in the council board. This is one of the happenings in Toledo in which politics have played no part.

The Bee suggests that Friday be made a general holiday, and that all factories, workshops, stores and offices close so as to give employes an opportunity to participate in the day's celebration.

The Bee has received, with the compliments of Senator Brice, a neat pamphlet containing the names of the nominees for congress of all parties, the states appearing in alphabetical order.

The police commissioners hold their regular seance this evening, and the prospects are good for an old-fashioned Kilkenny cat fight. Great is the harmony now prevailing at police headquarters.

Councilman Tanner's course in pleading guilty is very generally approved. The county is thus saved a good-sized bill of costs, and there is no ground to believe the result would have been different from that of the Daly case.

Mayor Emmick has issued his proclamation, which appears elsewhere, calling for a general observance of Columbia day. Let's suspend business for a half day at least and join in the festivities.

The rousing reception tendered Byron Ritchie at Oak Harbor Monday night was in singular contrast to the miserable fiasco at Maumee, where Mr. Ashley orated to a mere handful. There were hardly enough present to adjourn the meeting.

There was general regret that the services of Gen. Gibson could not be secured for the Columbia day program, but Toledo fortunately has many excellent orators, and one of them, Judge Cochran, was drafted. His address will be worth hearing.

Pumps are being placed in the St. Mary's field, with a view of increasing the supply of natural gas for Lima and the other towns in that locality. Nature's fuel, that was thought by many to be inexhaustible, seems to be waning at a too rapid rate.

Machine republicans may prevent the workingmen of Toledo from expressing their sentiments in resolutions, but fortunately the Australian ballot is a more potent factor against Candidate Ashley. This will be found the case at the close of the polls on the second Tuesday in November.

Hon. Charles P. Griffin will give Toledoans occasion to rise up and call him blessed if he will prepare and push to passage a bill in the interest of a more responsible government for the city. There is room for vast improvement in the present system, and fortunately the people are in excellent shape to consider any measure with this end in view.

Even the most rabid republican organs commend Mr. Cleveland's manly course in declining to attend the world's fair dedicatory exercises, ebcause Mr. Harrison cannot be present. His expressions of sympathy for his opponent have a ring of sincerity that cannot be denied even by his enemies. In all his dealings, public and private, the democratic candidate for the presidency never forgets the courtesy and fairness that characterize all his dealings with his fellow men—an honest, pure-minded gentleman, an honor to his country, his party and himself, who commands and compels the respect of his bitterest foes.

Seldom in the history of Ohio politics has such an opportunity presented itself of sustaining and maintaining the dignity and value of personal worth and merit and of rebuking the arrogance of wealth and privileges of power than in the present campaign in this district. Mr. Ashley proposes securing his election through the same means that he secured his nomination. There are few republicans in Toledo or the district outside of the average ward workers who do or can approve of the methods employed by him in securing the nomination. His own supporters were the first to start the cry of boodle. In the minds of honest men, republican and democratic, Mr. Ashley's career in politics should and probably will offset the advantages of a barrel and 1,800 majority.

Mr. Ritchie goes into the canvas clean-handed, clear-headed, young, ambitious, and with a record to make and a career to create. It will be to his interest, therefore, to advance in every way possible the interests of his constituency. Mr. Ashley has no such motive. He has acquired wealth and now desires this honor to form the cap sheaf of his life.

Will it pay to send such a representative to congress? Mr. Ritchie has not a barrel to open, and yet he is not a poor man in the sense that honor and honesty are greater than gold. He is rich in his youth, in his ambition, in his loyalty to Toledo and her interests. He is rich in all that goes to make a progressive and active buiness man. Vote, therefore, for Byron Ritchie.

A WORD HERE AND THERE.

Prophecying a Sure Thing.

Three weeks from to-day Cleveland and Stevenson will be elected president and vice-president of the United States. If you see it in the Herald it is so.—Rochester Herald.

But There's No Material to Work On.

Mr. Peck, the bushel-headed statistician has gotten himself into more trouble. He had better devote his energies to mending his broken character, instead of fooling with labor statistics.—Macon News.

Are Making a Good Deal of Fuss About It.

Assuming that it is of "no consequence," the Tootses of the republican party are expending a good deal of gratuitous abuse upon MacVeagh for changing his political faith.—Kansas City Star.

Not His Funeral.

The Pittsburg Dispatch finds fault with ex-Gov. Campbell because he is not more solemn in his campaign speeches. But this is not the Ohioan's funeral, and why should he put on funeral airs?—Washington Post.

Reviving Again.

Mr. Halstead's prediction department is again showing signs of life. Its last public appearance was on the eve of the republican convention, when it stubbed its toe on the Blaine boom.—Washington Post.

A Gentleman First, and Always.

Grover Cleveland has shown innate courtesy in declining to come to Chicago at a time when President Harrison is unable by serious illness of his wife to be present. Mr. Cleveland is in every essential a gentleman.—Chicago Times.

No String to Him.

There is no string to Judge Gresham's flop. He has flopped right over, and in reply ot the grand republican howl he simply says: "As an American citizen I consider it my duty to vote according to my convictions. I owe no slavish obedience to any party."—Wheeling register.

Too Late.

Mr. Blaine's feeble voice, unwillingly raised at the eleventh hour, will accomplish nothing to stay the tide which is rising against Harrison and McKinleyism, and he knows it. He can add to his own popularity by appearing again in public. He always does this. But as for Harrison—it is too late.—Boston Post.

Will Reduce the the Majority.

The recent developments in Pennsylvania have convinced the democrats that the keystone state is good fighting ground. While they are not sanguine of carrying it, they are satisfied that they will reduce the republican majority to an exceedingly narrow margin.—Chicago Herald.

It Has Become a Nightmare.

Senator Ingalls is going to tax his ingenuity to the extent of comparing our industrial system with that of Europe. Ingalls seems at a loss to know how to apply his time, and it is strange that the G. O. P. hasn't made overtures to him to address the voters on the "iridiscences of a dream."—Macon News.

He'll Whistle and Wait—In Vain.

Mr. Blaine at Ophir farm said in substance: "I am going to whistle the Irish back to the republican party. Hear me whistle." The whistle has been sounded loud enough, but it is not noticed that the Irish return. It is Harrison who is the candidate, not Blaine. They might follow Blaine, who was compelled to resign his portfolio under Harrison. They cannot follow Harrison. They have had no encouragement to do so.—Chicago Times.

Where are They At?

Mr. Blaine reminds the people of the northeast how prosperous they are. "I doubt," says he, "if since the government of the United States was instituted anybody at any time has seen what we call 'good times' so general in so many interests, and spreading prosperity throughout the whole domain of trade." What do the farmers of Kansas, who are getting only 50 cents for their wheat, and the farmers of the south, who are getting only 6 cents for their cotton, think of this? Where does their share of the "good times" come in at?—St. Louis Republic.

WILL NOT REGISTER.

Toledo's Chinamen Refuse to Obey the Law.

They Have Instructions From San Francisco to Fight Their Cases in Court.

The local officials of the revenue office are having a tough time in enforcing the law compelling Chinamen to take out certificates of citizenship.

In fact the Chinamen of Toledo have unanimously refused to register.

To Deputy Collector Coy was assigned the duty of looking up the matter, and he reports that the following informed him that they will contest the law:

Jim Lay, Fong Lee Loo, Sam Lay, Yung Lee, Loo Sing, Sun Lee Loo, Loo Fay.

These are the prominent Chinese of Toledo, and they say most emphatically that they will not register.

Questioned as to their reasons for refusing, they said they have received instructions from the "Six Companies" in San Francisco that the law is illegal.

WILL BE RED HOT.

The Political Campaign From This Date On.

Burke Cochran and Governor Campbell to Speak Here—Railroad Men Rally to Ritchie—Hundreds of Volunteers.

Hundreds of railroad men are calling at democratic headquarters and volunteering their services in the interests of B. F. Ritchie. Seldom if ever has there been such a general uprising of railroad employes against a detested employer.

Ashley's discrimination against organized labor leads many active republicans to work against him.

Chairman Eppstein said this morning that he has had hundreds of applications from prominent railroad men just wanting an opportunity to go out and work. They pay their own expenses and give their services gratis.

This is the kind of work that counts, and that means victory for the entire ticket.

There has not been in years so many offers of assistance from both local and outside speakers.

The committee is arranging to have Gen. Bourke Cochran, the silver-tongued orator from New York, ex-Governor Campbell, Hon. Frank H. Hurd, and other prominent speakers make addresses in Toledo and in the district before the close of the campaign.

Mr. Hurd has tendered his services, and he will deliver an address probably at Memorial hall, next week.

Another encouraging phase of the campaign is the large number of Toledoans who are absent from the city, but who declare their intention of coming home to register and vote. The following is a sample of hundreds of such:

"I am an impecunious printer, a democrat from "Bitter Creek," anxious to vote for Cleveland and against the "impeacher" Ashley. I will go to Toledo to register and afterwards put in a plumper for the candidate of the party of principles and universal human rights. I have voted in Ward 1 for four years past. Respectfully,
SIDNEY BENNETT.

The Fourth ward democratic club held a meeting last evening in its new hall, corner of Division and Vance streets. The different committees reported progress, especially the financial committee, who have been very successful. It was decided to secure several good speakers for a grand rally, to take place at their hall next Saturday evening. Everybody is cordially invited. It was also decided to make Monday and Friday regular meeting nights.

The democratic executive committee is sending out the following notices to those who have not registered:

You have not registered yet. Unless you register you cannot vote. Do not neglect this important duty in this presidential year. You owe it to yourself as a citizen, and to the democratic party, to vote this year. Register! Register! Register! Don't put it off. The remaining days of registration are,

Thursday, October 20th,
Friday, October 28th,
Saturday, October 29th, between the hours of 8 a. m. to 1 p. m., and 4 to 9 p. m.

The beautiful new banner with the pictures of Cleveland and Stevenson, has arrived and will hang across Summit street in a day or two.

A BUNCH OF DATES.

The Political Equality club will hold the annual meeting and election of officers next Saturday afternoon. A full attendance of the members is desired.

The New Century club will meet Friday evening with the Misses Law, 1231 Huron street.

Henrietta L. Monroe meets with Mrs. D. L. Calkins, 830 West Washington street, to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Don't commit suicide on account of your "incurable" blood disease. The sensible thing for you to do is to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If that fails, why, then keep on trying, and it will not fail. The trouble is, people get discouraged too soon. "Try, try, try again."

OUR OHIO EXCHANGES.

The Proper Time.

What more delightful period could Columbus have chosen for discovering this country than golden October?—Dayton Herald.

A Seasonable Delicacy.

A large flight of crows passed over the city yesterday. They probably desire to avoid being the principal feature of the menu of the tariff party next month.—Dayton Times.

Ingersoll and the Devil.

Bob Ingersoll is again making speeches against the Lord and the democratic party. Bob is a great lover of the devil and the republican party.—Findlay Courier.

He Speaks at Last.

Senator John Sherman, republican ex-cabinet officer, announces that he will remain with the republican party. This is important, if true, in more senses than one. It is certainly the only funny thing he ever said.—Dayton Times.

Tell Them Nay.

The republican scheme is to hire democrats to stay away from the polls. That is what their huge corruption fund is for. The man who remains at home this year will be subject to the suspicion of his neighbors.—Zanesville Signal.

The Farmer Holds the Bag.

The binding twine factory at Xenia, O., has declared a dividend of 150 per cent. The McKinley tariff did it and the farmers pay it from the proceeds of their 68-cent wheat and 25-cent wool.—Mansfield Shield.

The campaign of education and of silence is trying on the politicians. If the people would exhibit some enthusiasm, join processions, carry torchlights and yell, he could form some conception as to "where he was at."—The Massillonian.

Signs of the Times.

Ex-Speaker Keifer says politics are altogether too quiet in Ohio. The indications point, he says, to an extremely light vote. This apathy, according to the ex-speaker, prevails also in Indiana. Congressman Caldwell, of Ohio, has strong hopes of republican success in his state. "The only thing," he says, "is that the people are not worked up." This is significant. The democrats have usually won their great successes in years when the republicans were not "worked up." Keeping quiet is not a good omen when the sacred policy of protection is at stake. —Norwalk Experiment News.

If every democrat in Ohio will vote on election day the state will go democratic and its electoral vote will be given to Cleveland and Stevenson. This is no joke or campaign bombast. We mean just what we say. The conditions are all favorable to democratic success in Ohio this year. Our republican friends refuse to get excited or scared. They no longer believe that the country will be in danger if the democratic party succeeds. They know Cleveland, they have seen him tried, they have confidence in him and know that the country is safe if he is elected. Hence many republicans are totally indifferent as to the election this year. This, then, is the opportunity of the democrats if they will but improve it. With a full democratic vote on the 8th of November this state will give a democratic majority for the first time in a presidential year since 1852—40 years ago. Let every democrat put forth his best efforts to get out every democratic vote on election day. We can win if we will.—Mansfield Shield.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

A Popular Young Chicago Lawyer, Though An Expert Swimmer, Helplessly Drowned—He Had Ample Wealth and $200,000 Life Insurance.

Here is a story anent life and accident insurance much out of the common run, yet of unusual force in illustrating the insecurity of mundane existence.

Mr. G. was a young Chicago attorney, clever, energetic and popular. He was a natural money maker, sure in a few years to have been a millionaire. His health was simply phenomenal; his love of life and ability to get good and enjoyment therefrom that of one man in a thousand. His was an organization illustrated, for example, by the power to work at his office and in court up to train time, then off to the woods, lakes or sea for a few weeks of recreation and back again to labor at the minute fixed. He has been known to leave Chicago, reach New York the sailing day of the Teutonic, go on board in the height of the season with no preliminary notice to the company, sleep on the floor of an officer's room, spend a week in London, and be back at Chicago inside of a month, having secured two or three new clients with fees more than enough to pay for a half dozen such trips. He was a gourmet in the finest sense of the term, a social and business favorite, of an English army family, happily married to a gifted lady, and the proud father of a beautiful little girl. No man ever had a heartier friend than he always proved to be; ready to encourage, laugh away apprehension, and show that life was bound to yield in the long run more of brightness than gloom.

Among the evidences of his ability was the fact that some years ago he took life and accident insurance amounting to over $200,000, all in standard companies. His wife was of a cordial, wealthy family, but it wasn't his way to expect them to care under any circumstances for him or his. He meant to be and was, fast becoming rich, but though one of the wealthiest men that ever lived knew human existence to the individual to be as uncertain as a breath of morning air. So he piled on the insurance, and thought no more about it except to pay the premiums, and then plunged into hard work, honest enjoyment, and deserved happiness, with a keener relish, if possible, than ever.

He was a life-long hunter and fisherman, and had been the mainstay of coteries of lovers of gun and rod in a hundred jaunts into the wildwoods. The largest salmon ever taken by hook have had their stuffed skins shown in Chicago as tokens of his skill in the angling art, while his sureness as a shot was proverbial.

A few weeks ago he went with a small party of friends to a hunting and shooting box in an adjacent state. One day two or three of the party were fishing in separate boats, with their guns also handy in case any game should rise. Mr. G. had that morning killed the two largest fish ever taken from the lake and had gone out again for "just one more," as he was to return home that night. A member of the party a little distance away chanced to look toward Mr. G.'s boat, and noticed the latter gentleman standing up tugging as if to remove his coat, but thought nothing of the incident until, glancing that way again, he saw that Mr. G.'s boat was empty. He at once rowed toward it. A stout line was hanging over the side. Pulling at the line there came slowly to the surface the body if his dead friend. The horrible situation was as plain as day. In handling his line while casting Mr. G. had caught the hook in the back of his coat. Finding he could not reach it, he stood up to remove the garment, and as the two sleeves were half off the boat lurched and, with his arms as tightly pinioned as though he was in a strait jacket, he was thrown into the water. He was one of the best swimmers in the United States, but with arms thus bound, and a coat pocket full of cartridges, and long, heavy ton hunting boots, was helpless as an infant, and sank like a plummet. When death sends for a man skill, health, love of life and all else are as naught. He goes.

Meanwhile there remains in this case, besides much real estate and other property, over $200,000 of the insurance money, already received, the income of which will maintain the stricken wife in affluence and rear the child in the manner its ancestry demands. Inevitable fate cut off the man's life half a century too soon, but fate itself was powerless to nullify the results of his judgment and forethought.

"Each Spoonful has done its Perfect Work,"

Is the verdict of every woman who has used Royal Baking Powder. Other baking powders soon deteriorate and lose their strength, owing to the use of inferior ingredients, but Royal Baking Powder is so carefully and accurately compounded from the purest materials that it retains its strength for any length of time, and the last spoonful in the can is as good as the first, which is not true of any other baking powder.

THE WEST AWAKE.

A Western Man Talks Politics to a Bee.

The People's Party in Kansas—Boies a Great Campaigner.

Mm. Murphy, a traveling salesman of St. Louis, and whose territory is in southern Kansas and Missouri, is visiting Toledo friends en route to Europe on a business trip.

"The democrats are confident of making big gains all over the west," he said to a Bee last evening. "In Missouri Stone will get the largest majority ever given a governor. Warner is making a good fight, but he will be beaten by 30,000. In St. Louis, when I left, there was a standing bet of $10,000 that Cleveland will carry New York and Indiana. Iowa, I think, will go democratic this time. I met Gov. Boies helping Stone down in Missouri. Boies is a dandy, and one of the best all-round campaigners in the country."

"How is it in Kansas?"

"The people's party will sweep Kansas. I was in Wichita three weeks ago, and bets of $1,000 to $800 were being offered that the people's party would carry Kansas.

"Talk as they will," he said, "Jerry Simpson is one of the most popular men in Kansas, even if he don't wear socks, and is going to be returned to congress by a largely increased majority."

COLUMBIA.

To the Editor: In passing through Cincinnati this morning a little after 7 o'clock, my attention was attracted by crowds at two different school houses. A short halt on my part, and I found the school children, principally boys, drilling for the great procession of next Friday.

I was instantly interested to see the activity, energy and vim with which the youngsters took hold of this new task so early in the morning, to say nothing of the large attendance at the early hour. I felt a strong desire to tarry with the crowd and watch young America in their various evolutions. As I looked into their bright faces, I could see the sprigs from which tall oaks were to grow. Some grasped the instructions of the young drill master with the quickness of thought; others slower but surer to get it right; some sluggish, but determined; some simply carried along by the assistance of others, typical of the battle of life. There was the leader, the subordinates, the rank and file from which were to spring the men of the future.

I was impressed with the enthusiasm displayed and the valuable lessons and benefits to be derived. Of course the close student of American history realizes that the patriotism instilled into our youth is founded on our early struggle with the mother country in which battle fields blood and destruction cut the all-important figure.

But now we celebrate a great victory of intellect, not brute force—genius, that in the face of ridicule that cuts keener than a physician's lance, proclaimed the existence of a new world beyond an unknown sea— genius that originated the thought itself, and with unfaltering courage executed and carried out the details and brought about the realization.

The flight of time has brought us to 1892. What a country we have! What a position we occupy among the old nations of the earth. See what we have contributed to art, to science, to literature, to mechanics. What a grand, successful demonstration of a government by the people. What a blessing we have been to humanity, and how much better the world is by reason of our existence needs but a slight comparison of ancient and modern history. How much more is there in all this to instill into the youthful mind as a foundation for patriotism and love of country, instead of the false glamor of bloody battles, bitter sufferings, distinction of property and engendered hatred. The one belongs to the past ages, a dead past; the other has grown with us, is still with us. It is the active living present.

October 18, 1892. JOHN HOLLAND.

This Motion Will Carry.

In addition to Judges Cooley and Gresham, ex-Attorney General McVeagh, Gen. Cox and others Harrison Clark, ex-department commander of the Grand Army in New York, and Judge Lynde Harrison, a veteran republican leader of Connecticut, have seconded the motion to make Cleveland's election unanimous.—Grand Rapids Democrat.

THURSDAY, Oct. 20, SECOND REGISTRATION DAY. DEMOCRATS, BE ON HAND.

THEN AND NOW.

Nasby's facile pen pictured in fancy colors a gentleman who is now capping the climax of his life by playing the demagogue to perfection. It needs no diagram nor a pictorial illustration. Read it:

From D. R. Locke's Story of "The Demagogue."

"Conscienceless demagogue that he (Caleb Mason) was. A republican, not because he cared for the principles the party stood for, but simply that he wanted to rise to power in the nation, and the shortest way was to be a leader in the dominant party. He would have been a democrat just as willingly, had that party had the remotest chance of coming into political control of the national government, and retaining that control. They (the republicans) distrusted his politics; they distrusted his motives; and especially did they distrust his leadership, and oppose the tyrannical and arbitrary methods by which he kept so firm a grasp on the party in the district.

"These were the men whom Mason feared. They were not to be reached by means familiar to him. They did not want office, and therefore could not be bribed in that way. They were upright men, and therefore could not be bought. They were intelligent men, and therefore could not be brow-beaten. They were upright men, and therefore could not be assailed in their private characters, and silenced in that way. And the most vexing thing with Mason was, that the very qualities that rendered them unmanageable by ordinary demagogic methods, gave them the respect and confidence of a goodly following of plain, honest, plodding men, who took no part in politics, save to vote, and who, aconsequently, were his enemies.

"There was but one thing Mason could do. He could appeal to the voters to support him, because of his 'services to the party,' and solemnly warn them against 'silk stocking republicans,' who refused to 'abide by the will of the party, as expressed by the party's representatives.'"

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

To the Editor:—We attended the hearing in police court of the cases of nine boys, ranging from the ages of 6 to 12 years, for robbing an old crippled woman on Monroe street, who was taken ill, conveyed to the infirmary, her home being put in care of Mr. Baumbach. Two of the boys helped him to nail up the windows, who with others, took her stock in trade, sewing machine, bed, bedding, stove and all household effects.

The above charges were sustained, but on account of the youthfulness of the culprits, their setence of five days in the city prison was suspended during good behavior, and they were sent home. Now, two had been up before, two had helped to nail up the windows, and two were shown to have parents, who owned houses, which they rented, yet sent their children out to beg last winter; also there were a number of mothers, who admitted seeing abundance of candies in their children's possession.

On the 8th we heard the cases of two boys, for cruelty to a little dog. No note was taken in this case, that while the dog was warm, a tennis rope was tied to its neck and it dragged about. Now, what would be our thought if any person was to drag about or kick a dead baby? We also came to the knowledge that two very young children had spoiled the walls of a new house, in one of the best localities of our city, daubing it with red paint, but the parents of these were willing to repair damage voluntarily—as far as having them papered.

Why, the question arises, should not these other parents whose boys made desolate the home of the poor old lady, just as the winter is approaching, be fined to the amount of her loss, and court and law fees be also assessed, and not taken out of our tax funds; why should not the morally evolved ideal, shown in the voluntary reimbursement bring the responsibility home to where it belongs, to these other parents? If the law of kindness could be taught at home we should not have boys willing to rob old feeble men and women. There was a contrast in the age of Thomas Lynch, for stealing a silver watch from an old man, both in years and amount stolen and sentence. This old woman lost $15 worth of stock and all her household goods. The thief of the watch was fined $150 and costs, and to serve 30 days in the work house. Comment is unnecesary.

In the face of the trials of councilmen going on at present, this question of youthful criminals, and what to do with them, is a serious one. If the earlier offences go scot-free, the later will cost the state time, money and a lower standard of manhood that no people can afford, and we ask is it well in those who testify in such cases to show levity before young criminals? E. S. FRAY.

TRIO OF WEDDINGS.

Six Young Toledoans Are Wedded Together

By That Cute Little Blacksmith Cupid, Assisted, of Course, by Their Respective Pastors.

Last evening, at the residence of the bride, 529 Elm street, occurred the wedding of Charles O. Pheatt and Miss Mattie Norton. The house was beautifully decorated with smilax, rosebuds and chrysanthemums in profusion. The ceremony was performed under a bower of smilax and a bow-knot of pink and white roses. Rev. S. G. Anderson performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Miss Mina Pheatt, sister of the groom was maid of honor, and Misses Cassidy and Carnahan were bridesmaids. Louis Cooke, of New York, formerly of Toledo, was best man. The bride looked charming in a handsome heavily corded white silk gown, trimmed with pearl garniture fashioned entrain, and carried a large bouquet of bridal roses.

The dining room was most artistically decorated. The bridal party was seated at a heart-shaped table.

The groom is a popular young man and is employed as bookkeeper at Pliny, Watson & Co. The bride is one of Toledo's most charming young ladies. Their numerous friends showered them with costly presents and the heartiest of congratulations and well wishes for their future happiness.

Walbridge-Lee.

A very pretty but quiet wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Walbridge last evening when their daughter, Mary Perrin Walbridge, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Alvin Lee, Rev. Charles Scadding performing the impressive Episcopal marriage ceremony. The bride, who has been employed in the postoffice for some time past, is admired for her womanly character and gracious manners. Her bridal gown was a dainty white brocaded India silk, trimmed in lace and pearl. She carried bride's roses and wore a pearl pendant and chain, the gift of the groom. Miss Gussie Walbridge was maid of honor and was charmingly attired in a pink silk and lace. The bridesmaids were Miss Minnie Walbridge, attired in white silk, and Miss Mattie Stebbins, in light green silk and lace. Mr. Robert Adams, cousin of the groom, was best man and Messrs. George Walbridge and Thos. Wheeler were attendants, while Mr. Eb. Walbridge was master of ceremonies. The pretty home was artistically decorated with astors, roses, palms, etc., by Mrs. Baumgardner, Miss Miller, Mrs. Raymond, of Akron; and Mrs. Tyler, of Warren, O. Mr. and Mrs. Lee were the recipients of numerous beautiful presents. Among the guests from abroad were: Mr. Lee, of Hudson, and Mr. and Mrs. Sneath, of Tiffin. After the ceremony an elegant wedding repast was served and late in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Lee departed for an eastern trip.

Levy-Stern.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cohen, 314 Fourteenth street, occurred a very elegant and quiet wedding last evening. Their niece, Miss Cennie Levy, and Mr. Maurice Stern, of Deadwood, Dakota, were united in marriage by Dr. E. M. Browne, of Chicago. The bride was attired in a heliotrope and lavender cloth gown, which was decidedly becoming to her style of beauty. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The decorations were pink and white and very eleborate, the dining room being draped in similax. Mr. and Mrs. Stern were the recipients of many handsome presents. Late in the evening the happy couple left for Chicago. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Levy, of Charlotte, Mich; Miss Hattie Levy, of Jackson, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. I. # A MUSICAL RECEPTION

Given in Honor of Toledo's Talented Vocalist,

Dr. Emma Boice gave a charming musical reception last evening in honor of Miss Genie Baldwin. The spacious home presented a brilliant scene. Each room was decorated artistically, the mantles being banked, and cut flowers, the gift of friends, arranged in every little nook. Up-stairs the decorations were entirely of yellow, marigolds predominating. Dr. Boice was assisted in receiving her guests by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boice, Mr. and Mrs. John Boice and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tillinghast. In the dining room were Miss Cora Law and Miss Reasoner and Messrs. Glen Smith and Warren Boice. Here dainty refreshments were served and the decorations were roses and smilax.

The charming hostess, Dr. Boice, was attired in a pink and green changeable silk, trimmed in Roman embroidery. Miss Baldwin was a picture in pink silk with pearl trimming and Mrs. John Boice looked handsome in pink silk, pearl trimming and lace. Don't commit suicide on account of your "incurable" blood disease. The sensible thing for you to do is to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If that fails, why, then—keep on trying, and it will not fail. The trouble is, people get discouraged too soon. "Try, try, try again."

A COLD WAVE.

Wauseon, O., Oct. 19.—(Special)—A score of men and children, six mounted men on scrawny horses, and a band, met Gov. Ashley at the train to-day. The outlook for half of the old-time audiences that greet republican speakers is poor.

Insects generally breathe through special pores in various parts of their bodies, and if these pores are closed by oil they are suffocated. Any one may test this by dropping sweet oil on the thorax of a wasp; it very soon dies. For this reason oil has been found one of the best things to use for the destruction of insects.

LATE MARKETS.

The receipts of wheat at Toledo to-day are 3,335 bushels less than on the corresponding Thursday in 1891.

The receipts at seven principal western points are 354,805 bushels in excess of the receipts on Wednesday in 1891. The northwest are 51,093 bushels and at five other points 303,712 bushels in excess of 1891.

Bradstreets makes the visible supply of wheat increased in a week 7,280,000 bushels, corn 993,000 bushels, oats 142,000 bushels. This increase in wheat is far greater than has ever before occurred in this country. It is so enormous as to be almost incredible. The increase in corn is also large and the markets for wheat and corn declined under the statement. We sincerely regret this immense movement out of farmers' hands—the invisible stock—into the elevators, or visible stock. It is bad policy on the part of the farmers, because it is known over the world and depresses prices. Farmers' surplus, ar the invisible, in their own possession, has no corresponding influence.

It has been a bad day for wheat bulls. The accumulations, and the daily receipts are too much for prices. Every day we are expecting a break in the movement, but it does not materialize, and buyers are losing courage. To-day the decline on the basis of December wheat at Chicago was 1 3-8c, but before the close 1-4 was recovered.

Corn has also had a market of weakness. December at Chicago declined 3-4c and closed 5-8c lower than yesterday.

In New York October wheat closed at 77 3-4c, a loss of 1-2c; December at 79 3-4c, a loss of 3-4c; May at 86 1-2c, a loss of 5-8c. October corn at 49 3-8c, a loss of 1-2c; May at 51 3-4c, a loss of 3-4c. October oats at 34c, a loss of 3-8c.

In Chicago October wheat closed at 72c, a loss of 1c; December at 74 1-2c, a loss of 1 1-8c; May at 79 5-8c, a loss of 7-8c. October corn at 41 1-2c, a loss of 5-8c; December at 42c, a loss of 5-8c; May at 45 1-2c, a loss of 3-8c.

On the regular board December sold at 75 1-4 and closed at 74 7-8, a loss of 3-4; May sold at 81 1-2 and closed at 80 5-8, a loss of 1c. Cash wheat—There was some shipping demand, but the sales were not large. Prices close 3-4 lower; No. 2 sold at 73 3-4, closing at 73; No. 3 soft, 65 1-4, closing at 65; No. 4 soft at 59; rejected No. 1 at 64 to 62; No. 2 at 50; mixed No. 2 at 69 3-4; No. 3 at 63 1-4; No. 2 hard at 69 1-2; No. 3 at 64 1-2; No. 1 white at 71. Corn, No. 2 on the call at 43. After the call at 43 1-2.

Clover seed was active but firm, closing steady. Prime for cash at $6 40; October at $6 45 to $6 40; November at $6 40; No. 2 at $6 15.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are 733,339 bus., and at five other western points 915,081 bus., total 1,648,420 bus. On the corresponding Wednesday in 1891 the receipts at the same points were 1,293,615 bus., including 682,246 of northwest wheat, leaving 611,369 bus., as the movement at the five other points, compared with 915,339 bu. to-day.

Export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were wheat 186,121 bus., and flour to an aggregate of 420,000 bus.

English markets as reported herein are firm for wheat and corn, and a shade higher for wheat in London.

Close in New York.

New York, Oct. 19.—Money loaned stringent again this morning at 6@7 per cent. Exchange quiet; posted rates $4.84 1-2@4.87; actual rates $4 83 3-4@4.84 for 60 days and $4.86@4.86 1-4 for demand.

Governments steady; currency, 6s, $1.07 1-2 bid; extended 2s, registered, $1.00 1-2 bid; 4s, coupon, $1.14 3-4 bid.

There was only a limited trading on the stock exchange again this morning. Up to noon 140,675 shares were sold. In the first hour prices dropped 1-8 to 7-8 per cent. After 11 o'clock there was some recovery but it did not hold. A pressure to sell New England soon had the whole list on the decline. Burlington and Sugar trust displayed some strength and at noon were slightly above last night's figures, but the rest of the list was heavy and lower. At this writing the market is dull.

Flour more active with prices steady; fine, $1.65@2.10; superfine, $1.70@2.20; city mill extra $4.25@4.35 for West Indies.

Wheat opened steady at unchanged prices, but declined 1-2c by noon. No. 2 red winter 78@78 3-4c cash; 78c October; 78 1-2c November; 80c December; 80 5-8c May.

Corn was weak throughout and declined 3-4c by noon. No. 2 mixed 50c cash; 49 3-4c November; 50 3-4c December and January; 51 1-2c May.

Oats opened weak and declined 3-4c by noon; No. 2 mixed 34c cash and October; 34 5-8c November.

Rye and barley neglected.

Molasses neglected; New Orleans 30@35c. Sugar—refined quiet and steady; cut loaf and crushed 5 5-16@5 1-2c; granulated 4 15-16@5c; cubes 4 15-16@5 1-2c; mould A 5@5 3-16. Coffee quiet; No. 7 rio 16 1-8@16 1-4c. Rice nominal. Pork steady; old mess $12.00@12.25. Lard quiet; November $8.20 bid; $7.80 bid December. Butter strong with good demand; creamery state extra 27 1-2c; western extra 29c. Cheese dull and barely steady; state factory, full cream, 10 1-4@10 3-8c. Eggs easier; moderately active; state new laid, choice, 24c; western, 22 1-2@23c for prime. Turpentine strong; 30 1-2@31c. Rosin dull; strained to good, $1.22 1-2@1.27 1-2. THUNDER STORM IN THE ANDES.

"The people of this country do not know what a thunder storm is," asserted John Segarez, a native of Peru. "You must go to the mountains of the tropics if you want to see the bolts of Olympian Jove and hear his thunder roll.

"There is no sight on earth so grand as a midnight thunder storm in the Andes. Byron describes a night storm in the Alps, and it appears inexpressibly grand to those who have never felt the solid earth rock beneath the terrific electric discharges and seen the forked bolts rend gigantic rocks from mountain peaks and send them crashing down into well-nigh bottomless chasms.

"I spent a night in the Andes in the summer of '88. Our party was encamped in a basin, walled in by three snow-capped peaks. Shortly after midnight a sudden thunder storm came up, and those three peaks seemed to be encircled with fiery blue serpents, that coiled and flamed and darted their fiery tongues across the triangular space at each other for an hour, while the peals of thunder followed in such quick succession that is seemed one continual crash—like an endless crack of doom.

"Bowlders larger than any building ever erected by man were torn from the crags and hurled into the valleys, while the rain came down like a second deluge, swelling in a few minutes every tiny rivulet to torrents that roared like Niagaras."
—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A SWEDISH QUEEN'S GRAVE.

A Swedish queen's grave was reopened at Upsala in the presence of the prince regent, the archbishop and many professors, says the London News.

The grave, which dates from 1584, is situated in a side aisle of the cathedral of Upsala, in a vault beneath the pavement; on the ceiling are painted the royal arms.

On the immense stone over the grave are engraved in Latin the words: "Catherine, Queen of Sweden, died September 16, 1583; daughter of Sigismund, King of Poland, and wife of Johann III., King of Sweden. She was buried on the 16th of February, 1584."

On removing this stone a copper coffin was found and opened. Within was a wooden coffin, somewhat decayed and lined with velvet in rags. Beneath a leather cover lay the corpse of the queen clothed in velvet, the feet in stuffed shoes. Amid the folds of velvet lay an extremely small skull.

Has Written His Letter of Acceptance.

The Issues of the Day as Seen by the Man

Who Has Always Been the Most Bitter Enemy That Organized Labor Ever Had.

New York, Oct. 19.—The following is the letter of acceptance of Hon. Whitelaw Reid, republican candidate for vice president:

Hon. W. T. Durbin, Anderson, Ind.:

Dear Sir—When the nomination with which the national convention had honored me was formally announced by your committee, I accepted it at once. In doing so, I accepted also the principles set forth in the resolutions adopted by the convention as the basis of its appeal to the popular suffrage.

To do other, or less than this, is, to any honorable man, an impossibility. A political party is an association of citizens seeking to have the government conducted in accordance with its views and presenting candidates whom it strives to elect for that purpose. To accept its nomination without intending to carry out its principles would be as dishonorable and as criminal as to procure goods under false pretenses.

There will be no misunderstanding as to the purposes of the republican party in this contest, and no doubt as to the attitude of its candidates. What it intends it has set forth in language that cannot be mistaken; and they will strive, by all the lawful means in their power, to enforce its plainly expressed will.

Since my interview with your committee further reflection and careful attention to the argument on both sides in the current public discussion have confirmed my belief in the wisdom of the republican declarations, as well as in the lucid candor with which they have been presented.

The party platforms—so-called—are more important this year than usual. Both the leading candidates have once commanded the approval of the American people in its highest form of expression. Attention is therefore concentrated less on the men themselves and more on the principles each is put forward to represent, and would, in case of election, be required to carry out.

The declaration of our opponents demand a still closer scrutiny, since their victory now would give them the first opportunity they have had since 1859, to put in practice their policy. Never, since that date, have they had control at once both in the executive and legislative departments of the government. This year the election of a president clearly carries with it majorities in both houses of congress.

It is obvious that, in the common judgment of the people in all parts of the country, the really vital issues which this year divide parties, and demand a popular decision, are those relating to the tariff and the currency. Fortunately both sides have stated their positions on these subjects with directness, simplicity and frankness. The issues thus made between the rival candidates for the popular suffrage are especially sharp and distinct.

The Tariff.

We favor a protective tariff, and when in full power, made the present one. Our opponents favor a tariff for revenue only and promise the repeal of the present one.

We maintain that the tariff should cover the difference in the cost of the home and foreign product, caused by the difference in the home and foreign wages for labor employed upon it. Our opponents distinctly repudiated the proposition that American wages should be considered in the matter, and declared instead that a tariff levied for anything but revenue only was unconstitutional. As the London Times of September 28th very naturally remarked: "This policy, if fairly and logically carried out, is not to be distinguished from free trade in the practical form in which we are familiar with it. If protective duties are unconstitutional, as was asserted at Chicago, no financial ledgerdemain can produce any other 'readjustment' than that which would naturally follow the removal of all impositions tending to bolster up particular branches of industry and commerce."

Should the American people now choose the republican candidates, the present tariff would stand, or when amended, would only be so changed as to insure a closer conformity in practice to the principles on which it was made. If our opponents should be chosen their congress is pledged to the repeal of the present tariff and to the adoption of one arranged for revenue only, and their executive is pledged to the doctrine that a tariff having regard also for American wages is unconstitutional, so that the only new one that could escape the presidential veto must be of the kind which The London Times considers equivalent to free trade.

We maintain that the present tariff has worked well; that it has developed American manufactures, steadied and increased American wages and promoted the general prosperity. Our opponents deny that there has been any increase of prosperity under the present tariff declare that wages have been reduced, and denounce the republican policy which, as they say, fosters no other industry so much as that of the sheriff.

We favor the system by which, when we think the country ready for the reduction or abolition of duties, we insist upon getting corresponding and reciprocal advantages from foreign countries as the condition of their enjoying those advantages in our own markets. Our opponents denounce this reciprocity as a sham, and therefore inferentially pledge themselves to its repeal.

The sharp issues thus presented for the decision of the American people cover more comprehensively and more specifically than ever before the whole range of considerations relating to a protective tariff—its constitutionality, its expediency, its relation to wages, its practical workings, and the question whether, as it is from time to time reduced, we should throw away the advantages thus extended to foreign nations or should get something in return for them.

The constitutionality of a protective tariff has heretofore been thought established. A tariff bill avowedly for "the encouragement and protection of manufactures," was carried through the first congress by James Madison and was signed by George Washington. A third of a century later, Andrew Jackson, in a message to congress (December 7, 1830), maintaining the constitutionality of the protective system, said:

"In this conclusion I am confirmed as well by the opinions of Presidents Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe, who have each repeatedly commended the exercise of this right under the constitution, as by the uniform practice of congress, the continued acquiescence of the states and the general understanding of the people."

To this testimony from the men who made the constitution, and from the father of the modern democratic party, may be added that of the latest high authority of that party on constitutional law, the Hon. George Tickner Curtis, who has recently said:

"In common with many other democrats I cannot subscribe to the doctrine that a protective tariff is unconstitutional. In drafting and voting for this resolution the members either showed dense ignorance of American political history or they manifested a purpose to win votes by deceiving the voters. I cannot at the bidding of these gentlemen, unlearn the lessons of my whole life. If I cannot claim to be an authority on such subjects, I can point out to others the true sources from which to derive interpretations of the constitution. They are to be found in the interpretations given by the first congress, by Washington's administration, and by the succeeding administrations of Jefferson, Madison, John Quincy Adams and Jackson.

The expediency of a protective tariff has been vindicated by the experience of the last 30 years—the most wonderful period of financial success over unheard of difficulties in the record of modern civilization. Under it and by its aid the republican management of our finances has resulted in the largest payment of a national debt in the shortest time known to history, and in the simultaneous development of the industries of the country and the prosperity of the people on a scale without a parallel.

Eight years ago, in a masterly public paper, James G. Blaine called attention to the revelations of the United States census as to the net results of the labor and savings of the American people under the system of a protective tariff. The "true value" of all the property in the United States, excluding slaves, was set down in the census of 1860 at fourteen thousand millions of dollars—that being what there was to show for the toil of 250 years. With the success of the republican party that year the protective policy which has since prevailed was introduced. In the census of 1880 the true value of the property in the United States was set down at fortyfour thousand millions of dollars, making an increase of thirty thousand millions, or over double the entire growth in the previous 250 years. We are now able to carry the comparison ten years further, through the disclosures of another decennial census. It appears that the property of the United States has been still further increased in the last ten years by fourteen thousand millions of dollars—making a total increase in the 30 years of republican rule and a republican protective tariff of forty-four thousand millions of dollars, against the fourteen thousand millions earned in the previous 250 years.

Mr. Reid then proceeds at length to show how democratic officers in the regular course of their official duty, have presented statistics showing the wonderful increase in our industrial interest and a corresponding increase in wages, as well as the new trade that has been opened under the reciprocal relations which we have entered upon with foreign powers.

After discussing at some length the subject of currency and the silver problem, he denounces the proposed return to the semi-barbarous condition of state bank issues, and pays his respects to the Force bill sham, on which he says:

"It is not to be disguised that the recent clamor against this principle, if it means anything, means a purpose to nullify the XIVth and XVth Articles of the Constitution of the United States.' '

After a reference to the importance of encouraging American shipping, he concludes his letter as follows:

"The administration of President Harrison has been generally recognized as honest, able and safe. Considering the number of important subjects of both foreign and domestic policy, it has been compelled to deal with, and the satisfaction that has attended the results, it may indeed be pronounced brilliantly successful. Abroad it has adjusted difficult questions with consideration for weak nations and with courteous but resolute firmness to the most powerful. It has protected the honor of the flag and the rights of our citizens; has preserved the peace, and secured the further application of its principle of international arbitration; has removed long standing prohibitions on unjust charges of unhealthful against our food products; has opened new markets with our neighbors and promoted a closer intercourse. At home it has refunded a portion of the remaining debt of the lowest rate recommended by any nation in the civilized world; has largely strengthened and improved our navy; has greatly enlarged the free list at our custom houses and remitted over one hundred millions of duties on a single article in admitting sugar free. Not to enumerate further it may be fairly said that the present condition of the country and the general public confidence in the administration combine to form the strongest protest against subjecting the people to the shock and needless risk inevitable in such a change. A sudden reversal of policy is not what either the suggestions of ordinary business prudence or the obvious and general contentment of the people call for.

"I believe your declaration of principles and your renomination of a prudent, spotless and successful president, will command the popular approval at the polls, and will, under God, inure to the continued benefit of our country."

FRENCH-AMERICANS

Celebrated the Columbus Time in Excellent Shape

At Memorial Hall—There Were Music, Speeches, Refreshments and a General Good Time.

"Vive l' Amerique!" was the aspiration in the hearts and minds of the citizens of French descent assembled last evening in Memorial hall in honor of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the new world and of the intrepid discoverer.

A feature of the gathering truly French was the presence of a goodly proportion of ladies and children, rendering it more like a reunion of families than a formal meeting for listening to speeches. The speeches, like the decorations, were thoroughly American. Immediately after the chairman, Mr. Joseph Duprez, had called for order the patriotic hymn, "Columbia," was sung by Prof. Poulin's quartette, with organ accompaniment by Mrs. Sands. This aroused great enthusiasm, which lasted to the end.

Cheers were lavished upon Mr. T. J. McDonnell during a strong speech made by him on the advantages of American citizenship and the mingling of nationalities; on the greatness of Columbus and his work of discovery; on the character of Washington, the generosity of Lafayette and the aid given America by France, not only in her war of independence, but in the exploration of the country by French Catholic missionaries.

Mr. McDonnell spoke in English; but Mr. James Pillion delighted the hearts of many by addressing them in French. He said was highly patriotic in placing American citizenship first, with unqualified attachment to the laws and constitution. Citizens of French descent could join pride of American citizenship with pride of consanguinity with that other republic in western Europe, the foundations of which were laid by such lovers of freedom as Lafayette, Rochambeau and the 6,000 French troops that aided in winning the day at Yorkton. In commemorating the deeds of Columbus they did so as Catholics in honor of one whose purpose of bearing the cross to unknown lands was so well fulfilled.

Father Nourget, of St. Joseph's church, spoke in French upon the duty of Catholics in following up the work begun by Columbus, and of the glorious privileges and advantages vouchsafed to every aspiring citizen of the United States, the country, the flag of which is the recognized symbol of civil liberty the world over.

After the speeches refreshments were served, a jolly time was spent, and the friends of St. Joseph's church considerably enriched by the profits of the entertainment.

A papyrus manuscript found in the den of an old hermit in a cave near Jerusalem in the year 1880 and which experts have all along believed to have been the handiwork of St. Peter, "the friend of Christ," was submitted to a committee of the Biblical society of London in 1890. They have arrived at the conclusion that the work is in reality exactly what it purports to be, the last literary work of the great apostle. It is said that a "society of British literary voluptuaries" have offered £20,000 for the document.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

While Confined in the Defiance Jail.

A Prisoner Cut Down in Time to Save His Life—History of His Case.

Defiance, Oct. 19.—(Special)—Some weeks ago Henry Binderman, an old resident of Adams township, this county, was jailed for threatening the life of his wife. He had been abusing her and making her existence miserable for some time, and she could stand it no longer. He was prosperous and had quite a comfortable property, but as he grew old, his disposition changed and he became surly and violent.

He bore his imprisonment quietly enough until yesterday afternoon, when he made some erratic remarks to Sheriff Ewing. His talk was so strange and wandering that the sheriff resolved to file an affidavit of lunacy against him.

The sheriff then left him and was absent until 5 o'clock. A friend of Binderman wished to visit him and the sheriff conducted him to the prisoner.

Binderman was not in sight and no response was made when his name was called. A search was at once instituted and Binderman was found hanging to one of the bars in a window of the jail by a piece of binding twine.

For a moment the men stood aghast. Then the sheriff cut the rope, and Binderman fell to the floor, seemingly dead. A doctor was hurriedly summoned and succeeded in partially reviving the man.

He had climbed up about nine feet, secured the rope to the bar, placed the noose around his throat and let go. He was slowly strangling to death, and would have been a corpse in a few minutes more, had not the sheriff found him when he did.

His neck is badly swollen from the cutting of the cord, but he will undoubtedly recover. It is not known how he got the twine. He will be sent to the Toledo insane asylum as soon as his condition will allow.

TOLEDO'S DANDIES

Will Make the Wheels Go Round in Chicago.

The Cadets Left Last Night, Half a Hundred Strong, for the Windy City.

The Cadets started on their pilgrimage to Chicago shortly after midnight last night, half a hundred strong. It was a busy scene that greeted the eye at the armory last evening. The boys gathered at 10:30 o'clock, and from that time on everything was the most orderly confusion—that's about the best way to describe it.

Those who went on the trip are Capt. Wm. V. McMaken; Lieuts. T. T. Waters and F. J. Howell; Sergeants A. W. S. Irvine, F. K. Quine, H. H. Goodall, E. S. Parsons, W. G. Welbon, H. G. Middaugh and C. N. O'Brien.

Corporals E. T. Pixley., H. G. Hoag, J. C. Mullen, O. G. Hohly, J. Geelerd, W. C. Eley and W. T. Phillips.

Privates—Adams, Barshaw, Brailey, Bromley, Connelly, Dickinson, Dyer, Donaldson, Ehni, Engfer, Fisk, Heecoen, Hattendorf, Herroder, Lamb, McHenry, Messenger, Moore, Nigh, Peckham, Ryan, Smith, Scott, Souder, Spanker, Tucker, Trowbridge, Walsh, Wolfert, White, and Young.

The wheels, guns and baggage were sent down in the afternoon and stowed away in the baggage car that was placed at the company's disposal. The chair car in which the boys traveled was handsomely decorated by the Gendron company with streamers of the national colors and garlands of evergreens. A banner running the entire length of the coach was inscribed: "Toledo Cadets, O. N. G., Gendron Cycles." In the center of the decorations was a large picture representing Columbus' reception in Spain on his return.

The depot was reached at 11:20 o'clock. The boys were dressed in heavy marching order and looked like old vets. They will be given a place of honor in the big parade as the first company in America to be equipped with bicycles.

HAVERLY'S TO-NIGHT,

The Charity Ball To-Morrow Evening,

The Wife Friday Evening—A Good Show at the Wonderland—The Fast Mail at the People's.

This evening Haverly's minstrels will hold forth at Wheeler's with all the old favorites in line, including Billey Rice and E. M. Hall. The company is a large one and comes direct from Haverly's Casino in Chicago, where it has been running for months with great success. This afternoon Harverly's band will give a concert in front of the postoffice at 3 o'clock, at which time the great Kissell will give a performance. There will be no parade, but the concert will doubtlessly be enjoyed by many.

The Wonderland.

The theater performance at the Wonderland this week beats anything that has yet appeared at that place. The evening performances have been crowded and the ladies and children have attended the matinees in large numbers.

The Fast Mail.

The Fast Mail, with all its realistic scenic effects, is giving satisfaction at the People's this week. The railroad scenes are the best ever put on the People's stage. The company is fairly good and the play interesting.

Frohman's Company.

To-morrow evening Frohman's excellent company, from the Lyceum theater, New York, will present the Charity Ball at Wheeler's. Friday evening The Wife will be the attraction, presented by the same company. The sale of seats has been large for both evenings, notwithstanding the numerous counter attractions.

CENTENNIAL.

AGAINST THE UNION.

Electrical Bosses Take an Important Step.

New York, Oct. 19.—A special meeting of Electrical union No. 5468, A. F. of L., was held in this city last night, when the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That we, the electrical bosses and contractors of New York and vicinity, will make no distinction whatever between union and non-union workmen, on and after October 15, and that they will be compelled to work together, and be it further

"Resolved, That in case of a strike any firm hiring a striker will be fined $1,000."

The resolution was signed by 21 manufacturers, among whom were the following firms:

Western Electric company, H. Ward Leonard & Co., Eureka Electric Light company, Edwards & Co., Ostrander & Co., Complete Construction company, Bateman & Pollard and others.

Strikes were ordered for to-day in this city, Brooklyn, Long Island city, New Haven, Far Rockaway and several other places, and a great many men are out. The strike will spread in case the other firms attempt to employ non-union hands.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY.

Boston, Oct. 19.—The bricklayers' unions of this city will establish an eight-hour workday on November 1. This is the first branch of the building trades in Massachusetts to obtain the eight-hour workday. The men, in order to gain their object without a strike, have agreed to sacrifice one hour's pay, but it is expected that the limiting of the hours of labor will in a short time enable the bricklayers to get as much for eight hours' work as they have been receiving for nine.

READ HIS OWN WORDS.

CATSKILL, N. Y.

DR. DAVID KENNEDY, Rondout, N. Y.

MY DEAR SIR:—"I first used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y., through the advice of a prominent citizen of Catskill, N. Y. I was very sick at the time with Liver and Kidney trouble; was very much run down. I had three different doctors attending me, but continued to grow worse. I had a talk with this gentleman, in which he described his symptoms, when he was sick, and I found they were similar to mine; I told him so, and remarked, "if that medicine has done so much for you, it ought to help me." So he got a bottle for me, and I commenced "experimenting" on myself. I use the word "experiment" because I think that is all most of the Doctors do. I quit taking the Doctor's medicine when I commenced "Favorite Remedy" but did not apprise him of the fact. The result was that before half the bottle was used I felt a change. Next time the Doctor called he observed it, and said:—"There is a Change—you are better." I said I was and he again prescribed for me and was to return in a few days. When he did he made the remark that I looked "so much better," and said he would have me on my feet in a short time. I then showed him the medicine I was using in place of his, and it made him feel very "sore." Of course he claimed it was his medicine that helped me, and that I would be glad to call on him again for help, but I have not done so yet. I can also add, that there have been instances where my great faith in the "Favorite Remedy" prompted me to give a whole bottle to persons to poor too buy it.

"I take summer boarders from New York City and Brooklyn, and I have recommended it to several of them, and I have yet to hear from the one that has not been benefited from its use.

Yours respectfully,

JOS. McGIFFERT.

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST!

Official Test of Rubber-Lined Cotton Fire Hose by the Board of Fire Commissioners of Duluth, Minn., February 25, 1892.

The Board of Fire Commissioners of the city of Duluth, Minn., recently received proposals from manufacturers of fire hose to furnish the city with additional hose for fire department service.

Owing to the fact that every agent present upon that occasion, claimed to represent the ONLY brand of hose that could be depended upon to discharge the greatest quantity of water, all other conditions being equal, the commissioners finally resolved to satisfy themselves, and declared in favor of having a public test. Manufacturers who desired to enter the test were requested to furnish 500 feet of hose, with Duluth fire department couplings attached.

Seven competitors entered the field. Each line of hose—500 feet—was attached to a steam fire engine, and subjected to a water pressure of 200 lbs. to the square inch, and discharged water through 1 1-8-inch smooth bore nozzle. Note the result:

| Name of Company | Brand of Hose. | Weight of Hose per Section | Effective Pressure at Nozzle. | Gall'ns Discharg'd per Minute | Ratio in Gals Discharg'd per Hr. | No. of gal. less per hr. than discharg'd by the surprise hose. | Elongation of Hose. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Eureka Fire Hose Co... | Surprise Jacket.... | 59½ lbs | 95 lbs | 3.9 | 21.540 | 000 | 11½ ft |
| C. Callahan Co..... | Callahan Jacket... | 59½ lbs | 89 lbs | 347 | 20.820 | 720 | 14 ft |
| Gutta Percha Mfg. Co.. | Baker Fabric ..... | 48¾ lbs | 85 lbs | 339 | 20.340 | 1200 | 32 ft |
| Fabric Fire Hose Co.... | Unique Jacket..... | 63½ lbs | 4 lbs | 337 | 20.220 | 1320 | 25 ft |
| Chicago Fire Hose Co... | National Jacket... | 61 lbs | 82½ lbs | 334 | 20.040 | 1500 | 44 ft |
| Revere Rubber Co..... | American Jacket.. | 62½ lbs | 80 lbs | 329 | 19.740 | 1800 | 14 ft |
| Boston Woven Hose Co | Boston Fire Jacket | 52 lbs | 79 lbs | 317 | 19 020 | 1920 | 27 ft |

Owing to a high wind prevailing during the test, the distance reached by each stream was not taken into consideration.

The "Surprise" hose not only showed the best results at the nozzle but delivered the greatest quantity of water, and stretched less than any other hose that entered the test.

Heiskell's Ointment

Is a positive cure for all forms of

SKIN DISEASE.

We base this assertion on our observation of over thirty years, in which time a very large number and variety of Skin Diseases have been reported to us as cured, by the simple use of Heiskell's Ointment, without the aid of internal remedies. Many of these were cases of long duration, that had resisted the treatment of the most eminent medical talent in this and other countries. Heiskell's Ointment seems never to have failed in a single instance.

BEAUTIES OF MODERN POETRY.

But, after all, is not poetry as pleasant a pastime as another? It is to many as keen a delight as cricket, and it is not so expensive as tennis, even though once a year you bribe a publisher to set his imprint on your titile page. Herein, indeed, shall we find the true explanation of the popularity of poetry. The dilettante, to whom more active sport is distasteful, must needs find pursuit. In business hours the poet may be journalist or schoolmaster, a Grecon graduate or a lady interviewer. What if he or she devote her leisure to trifling with rhyme and rhythm?

Is there an accomplishment more elegant! And some outsiders there are who find pleasure in what are called literary circles; who are gratified to hear of the last transaction Mr. Jones concluded with his publisher, to sympathize with the last injustice inflicted by an envious critic upon Miss Smith. To such tiresome societies a volume of minor poetry is an open sesame. By the army of minor poets is swelled; who write verses like an exercise, and whose form is beyond impeachment. But it is only remarkable as a fashion.

It another age had not so complete a mastery as our own—which we doubt—it was only because the other age had more reputable employment. Frequent and painful as he is, the minor has as little to do with literature as the journalists who delight to ridicule him; and before many years are passed all the neat little verses printed on hand-made paper, with gilt tops and uncut edges, will have vanished into the darkness of oblivion, and with them the fifty whose fame and mastery Mr. Traill, with the kindest humor and indiscretion, is persuaded to praise to-day—National Observer.

JIM HARRIS AND HIS BANK.

When "Uncle Jim" Saw the List of Signatures He Concluded to Add His Own.

Terrell, Texas, is a small inland town, but "Uncle Jim Harris" is one of those sensible people who would rather be a big toad in a small puddle than a small toad in a large sized pond. He is considered immensely rich, a large hotel, several brick blocks and a real, "live," unencumbered bank being some of the items on his tax roll. This bank is the apple of the old man's eye, and is named simply but unequivocally for himself—"Jim Harris' Bank."

During the early heat of the present campaign an unprominent citizen of Terrell, taking time by the forelock, started out with a petition for the appointment of himself as postmaster under the coming democratic administration.

"Oh, go 'long," chaffed the old man. "I don't know nothin' about your qualifications as a postmaster. Besides, you're a too early bird: the worms ain't up themselves yet."

"But, colonel," the candidate insisted, "I'd like you to look over my list. I have the indorsement of some of the leading citizens of the city."

Uncle Jim took the paper, put on his glasses and read:—

"J. B. Harris, Jr., cashier Jim Harris' Bank."

"B. F. Gill, teller Jim Harris' Bank."

"John Jones, auditor Jim Harris' Bank."

THE MODERN SOCIETY GIRL.

She was standing before a long mirror, adjusting a little mink cravat that she called her "beastie." Her head was inclined a little to one side, and luxury was in all of her surroundings and appointments. She was an exceedingly pretty girl, and she knew it without studying her photograph. "Those are the pine-pillows for my Yale boys," she said, patting toward two lumpy heaps on a divan; "picked them in the Adirondacks myself! Going to let each fellow know that I have sent one to the other. Scheme, isn't it? Jealous, don't you see? Lots of fun! Nothing like it!"

"You're a sad coquette," said the indulgent duenna in the corner.

"Not at all. I can't help it if they all like me and insist upon falling in love with me. I snub them sometimes, but many of them even like to be snubbed—by me."

"Remarkable!" said the sententious duenna, smiling.

"Oh, yes! There's my Cuban sweetheart, for instance. Whenever I say nasty, mean things to him, or refuse to dance with him, he doesn't play the proud hidalgo and stay away altogether, like the hero of a novel—not he! He simply walks down to a swell confectioner's, and heaps coals of fire upon my head by sending me the most swagger bonbonniere his money can buy, and then, when he comes back in a week's time, I am so humble, don't you see! Then I lavish sweetness and smiles upon him, and he takes it all, never reproaching me. He only looks devotion at me with his Spanish eyes, and it is all over and past. Then I go to the piano and sing: 'For You, For You, My Darling,' looking straight at him, and that turns his brain. He comes over and kisses my rings as if he wanted to eat my hand. Funny, isn't it? But that is the way with some men; they are like the dog and the walnut tree—'The more you beat 'em the better they be.'"

"You seem to have had vast experience, my dear, yet you are only 21."

"Oh, I began early! I've been keeping up the merry racket for several years now. It gets to be a girl's second nature, don't you know?"

"And are you happy in this atmosphere of flirtation and intrigue?"

"Happy? What a question! I couldn't live without it! It is as bread and cheese and kisses' to me—especially the latter."

She threw out an arch glance and laughed consciously, as only the girl of many lovers can do.

"And which one of them are you going to marry; for that is where it must all end, you know? You will tire of flirtation, by and by."

She threw out another side glance at her inquisitor, and answered naively:

"Do you know, papa is quite the most charming man I ever met. When I encounter his equal in a lover, I shall marry—perhaps!"

Then she lifted her skirt, disclosing her smart plaid silk petticoat, and thrusting out a daintily-shod foot, said:

"They fit nicely, don't they? Come on, or we shall be late for the Minturn luncheon, and we don't want to sear our good consciences with any such social sins, I assure you," and she tripped down the stairs, singing prettily, "Love is all nonsense, any way."—New York Recorder.

THE GENUINE AND THE SHAM.

Every good thing has its host of imitators; every genuine article its counterfeits. The imitators always choose the most valuable and popular article to counterfeit, so that when they claim their sham to be equal, or as good, or the same as "So-and-So's," the public may depend upon it that "So-and-So's" article is the best of the kind. The sham proves the genuine merit of the thing it copies, and never has this been better illustrated than by the imitations of Allcock's Porous Plasters.

Allcock's Porous Plaster is the standard of excellence the world over, and its imitators in their cry that theirs is "as good as Allcock's" are only emphasizing this fact and admitting "Allcock's" to be the acme of perfection, which it is their highest ambition to imitate. The difference between the genuine and these imitations, which copy only general appearance, is as wide as that between copper and gold.

The only safe way for purchasers is to always insist upon having Allcock's Porous Plasters. They are the only perfect plasters ever produced.

POTTER TURNED DOWN

More Treachery by the Carnegie People.

A Trusted Man Removed From Work

In Order to Try and Win Back some of the Homestead Strikers.

Pittsburg, Oct. 19.—John A. Potter is no longer superintendent of the Homestead works of the Carnegie Steel company. His connection with the plant was severed this morning.

Mr. Potter has been appointed chief mechanical engineer of the Carnegie association with offices in Pittsburg. Mr. Charles M. Schwab, general superintendent of the Edgar Thomson Steel works, at Braddock, has been appointed general superintendent of the Homestead works, and Mr. James Galley has been appointed superintendent of the Edgar Thomson works.

The changes came as a surprise, although the removal of Mr. Potter from the Homestead plant has been frequently hinted at. It is well known that Mr. Potter was extremely unpopular with the men at Homestead, many of the old employes having declared that they would never return to work under Mr. Potter's management. Now that he has been succeeded by General Manager Schwab, who is a very popular official, it is claimed by the men that the removal of Mr. P. is the last resort of the Carnegie company to win back the confidence of their old empolyes and break the strike.

Secretary Lovejoy said to-day that the changes will not affect the attitude of the company toward the strikers and that no thought was taken toward placating the men. This morning's papers published the names of eleven Homestead strikers who, it was said, would return to work to-day. Up to noon, however, but two of the strikers, and they laborers, had gone to work in the mill.

DR. BRIGGS.

The New York Presbytery in Session Once More.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 19.—The synod of the New York Presbyterian church assembled here to-day. The only business of national importance that is likely to claim its attention is the appeal by the friends of Dr. Briggs from a decision of the presbytery that the committee of prosecution is an original party, and has a right to carry the case through all the ecclesiastical courts.

Should the synod decide that the committee of prosecution is but a creature of the presbytery, and has no authority to act without the direction of that body, it will be necessary for the committee to defend its own existence by appealing to the general assembly. It is contended, however, by the opponents of Dr. Briggs that as the general assembly has recognized the committee the appeal is of no moment.

CASE OF MR. PECK.

The Gentleman Not Ready to Answer.

The Case At Albany Goes Over for Another Week Once More.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Judge Clute, of the county court of sessions, was scheduled to hand down his decision to-day in the matter of the demurrer entered by Labor Commissioner Peck against the indictment found by the Albany grand jury against him. The court met at 2 o'clock. Mr. Edward Meegan, of the counsel for Mr. Peck, was absent on a case in New York city, and District Attorney Eaton, the prosecuting attorney, was also absent.

Assistant District Attorney Cohn stated that they would desire to have the court's decision put over until some other time, as the counsel were absent.

Judge Clute said his decision was not ready anyway, and he would therefore reserve decision.

The decision in the demurrer to the indictments in the case of Charles F. Peck and his stenographer, Mr. Rogers, will not be handed down until next term of the court, commencing November 7.

The trial of George W. Post, the pal of Buncoer O'Brien, who was remanded for trial by the court of appeals to the Albany court, for robbery, was set down for the second Monday in November.

INTO A MARCHING CLUB.

Serious Conflict Reported from Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 19.—As the Allegheny general republican marching club was passing along Smithfield street, about 10 o'clock this morning, en route to the B. & O. depot to take a train for Wheeling, they were run into near the Monongahela house by motor car No. 10, of the Birmingham line. Four of the marchers were struck and seriously hurt. One of the number lost part of a hand under the wheels.

The members of the club attacked the car and smashed the windows with their canes. Some one hurled an iron bolt from the car at the attacking mob, but no one was hurt. The club then attacked the motorman, but he escaped. There was intense excitement.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 19—The Soddy coal mines, the most extensive in this section of the country, changed hands yesterday. Capt. H. S. Chamberlain and D. P. Montague, local capitalists, succeed M. # TORTURING ECZEMA

Editor Iowa Plain Dealer Cured of Insufferable Itching and Pain by the Cuticura Remedies.

No Less Than Five Physicians Consulted. Their Combined Wisdom Followed Without Benefit.

I am sixty-six years old. In August, 1889, was troubled with the peculiar skin disease so which people of my age are subject, known among medical men as eczema. Its first appearance was near the ankles. It rapidly extended over the lower extremities until my legs were nearly one raw sore; from legs the trouble extended across the hips, shoulders and the entire length of the arms, the legs and arms greatly swollen with an itching, burning pain, without cessation. Although the best medical advice attainable was employed, no less than five physicians of the place being consulted and the prescriptions being the result of their combined wisdom, the disease, though apparently checked, would recur in a few days as bad as ever; during its progress my weight fell away about twenty-five pounds. As an experiment I began the use of CUTICURA, following the simple and plain instructions given with the REMEDIES, and in four weeks found myself well, with skin soft and natural in color, the itching and pain entirely relieved. Editor Iowa Plain Dealer, Cresco, Ia.

UNIVERSALISTS.

Convention in Session in Buffalo, N. Y.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 19.—The National Universalist church conference convened here to-day with between 200 and 300 delegates in attendance. The conference is distinct from the conventions of the Universalist church held in alternate years, in that no business is transacted, the object being merely the discussion of matters pertaining to the welfare of the church.

Papers will be read on sociological, theological and philanthropical questions and as the program announces, neither the conference nor the church is responsible for the utterances of any speaker, but each speaker for his own expressions alone. The president of the conference is Hon. Henry B. Metcalf, of Pawtucket, R. I. Among the distinguished people present and expected to attend are Rev. Henry Cushman, of Providence; Rev. John Coleman Adams, of Brooklyn; Dr. James R. Pullman, of Lynn, Mass.; Dr. Orillo Cone, of Buchtel college, Akron, O., and Dr. G. L. Demarest, of New York.

The sessions will be held at the First Universalist church. To-day was devoted to the meeting of the National Women's association, an institution organized for missionary and other aggressive work. The first session of the conference proper will be held this evening, when communion will be administered and a sermon preached by Rev. Mr. Cushman. The literary part of the program will commence to-morrow morning.

There is a little lane in Fairmount park on the Schuykill that is pointed out as a favorite haunt of Tom Moore, the poet, during his sojourn in Philadelphia nearly 90 years ago. Here he wrote the poem about the Schuykill's verdant banks, and here, it is said he carved the name of a Quaker miss, who had captured his fancy, on the bark of a tree, and his own name beside it. The tree is still pointed out, but the names, if they were there, have long since disappeared. The spot is now neglected and little known.
